

FRENCH WARSHIPS 'MANEUVER' IN MEDITERRANEAN AS DUCE AGREES TO WITHDRAW TROOPS FROM LIBYA

Gov. O. K. Allen Secretly Qualifies For Senate Race

Louisiana Amazed and Politicians Fear Former Long Machine May Not Be Behind Leake-Ellender Headed Ticket.

ACTION IS VIEWED AS POLITICAL WHIP

Ally Accepted as Candidate for Governor; Spokesman Declares Move Is "Protection."

By RALPH WHEATLY.

BATON ROUGE, La., Oct. 23.—(P)—Governor O. K. Allen rocked the political foundations of Louisiana today by disclosing he had secretly qualified himself as a candidate for United States senator and one of his political associates, Louis L. Morgan, general counsel for the Louisiana Highway Commission, for governor in the January democratic primary.

The qualifications were done secretly before midnight Monday, the hour the democratic candidates' books were closed. The Governor declined to say why he and Morgan had qualified and has left the political wingers in a quandary.

The secrecy of the move caught politicians by surprise. It was easy to keep it a secret as Governor Allen in the capacity as chairman of the democratic state central committee, receives applications of all candidates. He simply filed his own and Morgan's name with himself.

Until the Allen-Morgan qualifications became known, it was believed that the former Huey P. Long machine stood solidly behind the ticket headed by Judge Richard W. Leake for governor, and Allen Ellender, speaker of the state house of representatives, for senator.

More Said "Protection."

Spokesmen for the Allen administration group declared Allen and Morgan qualified to protect the administration's political interests in the event of the death, illness or withdrawal of Leake or Ellender.

However, other political leaders interpreted the move as one of discipline against Leake and Ellender whose independent thoughts have caused concern among some of the administration leaders. They claim if Leake and Ellender will remain in administration harness, Allen and Morgan could lay dormant in the campaign. But, on the other hand, if Leake and Ellender should attempt to jump over the traces, Allen and Morgan could emerge as active candidates in the campaign.

Antics Puzzled.

The Allen-Morgan qualifications puzzled the anti-administration ranks, which are split between the gubernatorial candidacies of United States Representative Cleveland Dean and State Representative Mason Spencer. On the Dear ticket, United States Representative John N. Sandlin has announced as candidate for the senate, and Irving Ward Steinman, of Alexandria, has announced for the state independently, saying he has

Continued in Page 6, Column 3.

SHUSHAN IS FREED IN U. S. TAX COUNT AMID DISORDERS

Cheers Sweep Courtroom, Photographers Mobbed as Ally of Long Wins Acquittal of Evasion.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23.—(P)—Abraham Lazard, Shushan, 42-year-old New Orleans notions merchant who scaled Louisiana's political ladder with Huey P. Long, was acquitted by a federal court jury tonight of charges he wilfully evaded payment of $712,000 in income taxes during the years 1929-1933.

The verdict, returned after four hours of deliberations, was followed by a scene of wild disorder and confusion as friends of Shushan attempted to stop news photographers from taking pictures in the courtroom.

Cheers Sweep Court.

As the court clerk read the verdict, cheers swept the packed courtroom and dozens of persons rushed to Shushan's side to extend congratulations. Court bailiffs rapped for order and Judge William H. Barrett, the man who sent Huey P. Long to the hospital the night of the explosion, directed the quiet. Just before the judge left the bench, Shushan rose from his seat and asked that no pictures be taken in the courtroom.

As Judge Barrett left the room through a side door leading to his chambers, he was mobbed—rapped a flashlight picture of Shushan.

Photographer Rushed.

Explosion of the flash bulb immediately changed the courtroom into a scene of disorder.

Several persons, some who were giant bodyguards of the late Senator Long, rushed for the photographs shouting "Get him" and "We'll break your neck."

A half-dozen court bailiffs vainly sought to restore order. The shouting bodyguards were restrained for a few minutes by a cluster of men who grabbed them and held them while Defense Counsel Hugh M. Wilkinson was still in a turmoil.

William McLemont, photographer for the New Orleans Item-Tribune, was knocked down in a corridor of the federal building. McLemont said he did not take any pictures from the courtroom.

Camera Smashed.

At the same time, Paul Votier, former Long bodyguard who was attending the trial as a spectator, grabbed for a camera in the hands of Leon Trice, Associated Press photographer. Votier was unable to gain possession

Continued in Page 2, Column 5.

$4,000,000 BLAZE THREATENS LIVES OF SCREEN STARS

Malibu Homes in Danger
As Uncontrolled Flames
Hit Section; Chic Sale's Family Save Selves.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23.—(P)—A brush fire roared out of control to night near the Malibu summer homes of several movie stars—one of several damaging southern California counties in the millions—as another blaze razed a six-story building in midtown Los Angeles.

Fire was expressed that a few victims may have been trapped in the Malibu section but no deaths had been reported.

Charles Sale, his wife and two sons, wrapped coats about their heads and plunged to safety through flames which for a time circled his ranch. The $10,000 Escondido ranch of Charles Farrell was one of those destroyed in the Malibu area.

Official estimates placed the damage from the fires in five southern California counties as mounting toward $4,000,000.

Nearly a score of cowboys, for a time reported missing, freed cattle and horses in the Malibu sector before seeking safety for themselves.

Explosion in Los Angeles.

The midtown fire flared after an explosion. The damage to the structure, the Novian building, was estimated at $500,000 and nine persons were sent to the hospital with injuries.

Sparks, igniting acetylene tanks used by workmen remodeling the front and interior of a drugstore in the ground floor of the building were blamed for the explosion. Tenants also included the local studio of a Long Beach radio station and garment manufacturers.

Hudson, 20 and a resident of Dobbs hall, is taking a course in abnormal psychology. For about two weeks students in the class study psychology, for the most part its history, and at the end of the period see a demonstration. The professor is the operator, and someone of the students the subject.

Continued in Page 6, Column 2.

Emory Student Wanders in Trance Through Accidental Hypnotism

Professor, Demonstrating on Other Class Member, Throws Junior Classman Into Three-Day "Highly Suggestive State;" Suffers No Bad Effects.

By ED EVANS.

HYPNOTIZED by accident, Charles Hudson, of Americus, a junior at Emory University, lived in the "highly suggestive state" from 9 o'clock last Thursday night until Sunday night near the same hour.

"I am slightly nervous and find that loud noises bother me—otherwise I'm perfectly all right," he said yesterday. "During the four days I was under, I was in a state very similar to sleep.

"Boys around here walked me about during the time. They took me to the student emergency ward at the hospital the night I was hypnotized, and Saturday night took me to town to a show, but I don't remember anything about it. I hear they had trouble getting me on and off the street car."

Presently, the subject either becomes hypnotized, or else it becomes apparent that some noise, thought or incapacity of the operator is distracting his attention. Another attempt may be made or some other student may volunteer as a subject.

Young Hudson, however, was hypnotized as he stood among the students to one side. Here's what happened:

Mistaken Identity.

As W. G. Workman, teacher of abnormal psychology and graduate student in the theology school, spoke softly to the student in the easy chair, Hudson—voluntarily or involuntarily, he doesn't know which—concentrated his gaze.

Police definitely linked the shooting with the Brooklyn hatchet-torch killing early today of Louis "Pretty Louie" Amberg, the seventh to die in recent weeks during a New York gang war over control of petty rackets.

Retaliations Cited.

Police said Amberg, third of five brothers who died violent deaths and the seventh of a string of victims in a gang war, was killed because he had crossed the Schultz gang in policy slips and the "shylock" racket.

The attempt to wipe out Schultz and his gang took, police agreed, was "Pretty Louie."

Police were scanning the reports of the Schultz shooting in New York when "Marty" Krompier was cut down with a companion, Samuel Gold, in a barber shop off a subway entrance in the theater section.

Krompier was identified as another of Schultz's aides and as a bookmaker.

Deputy Chief Inspector Francis J. Kear, commanding detectives in Manhattan, began a hunt for Charles "Lucky Charlie" Luciano, whom he accused of being set up an hour to execute the Schultz legions.

Schultz and two of his bodyguards were wounded by two assassins who surprised them in a restaurant. He was a former beer baron.

Schultz was shot in the right side. Police said Schultz, the bodyguards

Continued in Page 6, Column 2.

RISING TOLL SPURS 2 MILLIONS MORE SAFETY CAMPAIGN FOR GEORGIA'S WPA

Traffic Pledges Pass 35,000 Mark; Hit and Run Driver Sought in Killing.

McCarroll Countersigns Treasury Warrants for Expenditures in State.

By GLADSTONE WILLIAMS.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Comptroller General McCarroll today countersigned Treasury Department warrants that will permit Miss Gay Shepperson, Georgia state works relief administrator, to select from a list of projects already submitted to WPA officials a group that will result in the expenditure of $2,000,000. It was originally appropriated for 1935.

More than 150 patients were evacuated from three sanatoriums in the foothill region north of here. Sixty patients were removed from the Lavinia sanatorium in Millard canyon just before it was destroyed with a loss of $150,000.

Attendants removed 43 patients from the Independent Order of Foresters' sanitarium in upper Lopez canyon as Toll Mounts.

The fire in the Malibu hills, fanned by high winds, destroyed nearly a score of homes and cabins, including one along the ocean front.

Score of bush fire fighters received treatment at hospitals and emergency stations.

More than 150 patients were evacuated from three sanatoriums in the foothill region north of here. Sixty patients were removed from the Lavinia sanatorium in Millard canyon just before it was destroyed with a loss of $150,000.

Attendants removed 43 patients from the Independent Order of Foresters' sanitarium in upper Lopez canyon as

Continued in Page 6, Column 5.

FULTON ROAD JOBS APPROVED BY WPA

$80,000 Allocated for 22 Miles of Pavement; Immediate Jobs Planned.

WPA funds totaling $80,000 for paving 22 miles of roads in Fulton county have been approved and allocated by Commissioner Ed L. Almond, director of the public works department.

Actual work on the Crabbash road from Roswell to the Cherokee county line, and on the Riverton road from Fairburn to the Chattahoochee river, will begin within seven days of the official announcement of the appropriation by WPA, it was said.

The amount of the formal appropriation for the two projects is expected today.

The $80,000 is a part of the $4,000,000 which the county has requested of WPA for paving or repairing about 500 miles of roads in Fulton. Commissioner Almond said the county will also apply for $2,000,000 of federal funds to be administered by the State Highway Department.

Almond said approximately 750 men will be put to work on the two projects.

Continued in Page 2, Column 3.

Streamlined Train Travels 122 M. P. H.

OXFORD, Neb., Oct. 23.—(P)—The Burlington Railroad's streamlined train, the "Mark II," reached a top speed of 122 miles per hour west of Edison, Neb., today and破世界纪录. The record was claimed a new world's record for train speeds.

The claim, however, may be disputed by the Pennsylvania railroad, which claims a record of 127.1 miles per hour was set by its Broadway Limited near Ada, Ohio, June 12, 1905.

Continued in Page 2, Column 5.

The News at a Glance IN THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION

Clip this each day and make your scrapbook a thumb nail history. October 24, 1935.

LOCAL.

Road board asks bids on $1,000,000 highway jobs for November 8.

Page 1

Emory student wanders in trance through accidental hypnotism.

Page 1

French warships move into Mediterranean for "maneuvers."

Page 1

Defense on triangle staying may be mapped in conference today.

Page 1

Brother of ex-major in serious condition; hit-run killer sought.

Page 4

School construction program hits snag in architects' payments.

Page 3

Man wounded here in gun battle held under Lindy kidnaping law.

Page 1

DOMESTIC.

Confederate flag at Fort Pulaski in honor of U. D. C.

Page 9

A total of 54 CCC camps will be set up in Georgia.

Page 9

Campaign against screw worm in Georgia coming to close.

Page 9

Governor O. K. Allen, aide, qualify for service, governorship secretly.

Page 1

Roosevelt returns to U. S. declares recovery progressing soundly.

Page 2

Admiral Standley, big navy advocate, set for naval conference.

Page 11

Experts on materials useful for war reported an increase.

Page 12

Boys' High battles Riverside tonight in title game at Ponca de Leon

BALDWIN'S CHIEF ISSUE WILL BE REARMAMENT

Meanwhile, London Takes View War's End Is Far Off; Elections Near.

By CHARLES P. NUTTER.
LONDON, Oct. 23.—(P)—Gloomy predictions that the end of the Italo-Ethiopian war is months even years, away resounded in parliament today after Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin announced he would seek re-election on a rearmament program.

Parliament will be dissolved Friday, the general elections will be held November 14, and the formal opening of parliament December 3.

The rearmament issue was shoved directly to the forefront as a principal campaign issue by the veteran Baldwin, who said:

"In the interests of world peace it is essential our defensive services should be stronger than today."

"I will not pursue a policy or be responsible for the government of this country if I am not given the power to remedy those deficiencies that have occurred in our defensive services since the war."

This statement was heartily applauded. But government opponents immediately challenged the rearmament issue in a bitter debate in which the efficacy of economic sanctions against Italy was termed doubtful and dangerous.

Hoare's Statement.

The conciliatory note to Italy and the defense of Britain's conduct in the Italo-Ethiopian dispute struck yesterday by Sir Samuel Hoare, foreign secretary, was carried forward by Baldwin, and carried forward by the League of Nations.

Both said no effort would be spared to work out a satisfactory settlement, agreeable alike to the League and to the two disputants, Italy and Ethiopia.

Eden said he hoped a settlement may be reached. But as statesmen, from Baldwin down, took a pessimistic long-time view of the war, further developments outside of commons gave further indications of the easing of Anglo-Italian tension, if not the main dispute, and that important negotiations are continuing.

Italy advised Britain that one division of its troops will be withdrawn from Libya. In informed quarters belief was expressed that Britain might in turn order a couple of battle cruisers back from Gibraltar.

Not for Selfish Ends."

Baldwin declared rearmament is not directed at any particular country, but it is "a strengthening of the defensive services within the framework of the League for the sake of international security and self-respect."

He said if rearmament, which recently was reported, is to be successful, it must be based on certain fixed principles of equity," he said. "This is an adventure in which we might all be proud to play our parts," he declared, and was cheered.

Eden expressed his personal belief the League would emerge successfully from the present test, although admitting "it is difficult to estimate the ultimate effect of economic sanctions or the rapidity with which that effect would be produced."

"Personally, I must sincerely hope that in the few days which elapse before nations meet again to consider the dates on which sanctions must be imposed a settlement will be reached.

Davison's Employees Join Safety Campaign

Davison-Paxon's employees, 700 strong, have pledged themselves to drive safely. Mrs. Kate Lewis, left, and Mrs. Nellie Hopson, right, two of the Davison-Paxon sales staff, are shown with H. L. Eberle, store manager, after a monster rally at which 700 employees endorsed the safety campaign of The Constitution Safety Council and signed pledges to drive safely, whether in company trucks or privately-owned vehicles.

MOUNTING TOLL SPURS SAFETY DRIVE HERE

Continued From First Page.

at the most important crossings in the city.

"In my understanding that cars which have stopped for the red light should not proceed until the green light shows, but you will find at some of the most important crossings in the downtown district the traffic police blow their whistles, indicating the cars may proceed the instant the amber light shows."

Ex-California Writes.

From a transplanted Californian, Evelyn Smith, of Decatur, comes this request:

"I have followed the progress of your safe driving campaign with much interest. To me the best thing you have done so far in the picture showing the proper signals for turning. Please print them again."

"Let's have traffic laws printed and distributed to each driver as part of the cost of a driver's license—then tell the police to enforce them or get out." The sign reads "STOP" with a hand pointing down.

He also announced that the WPA has appropriated money for 1,000 road markers, which will furnish work for additional men.

"These markers will be made of concrete and will be placed at the intersection of all streets and roads in the county," he declared.

He also announced that the WPA has appropriated money for 1,000 road markers, which will furnish work for additional men.

"The campaign has been continuous and consistently enforced, but never blatant."

The North Side Press congratulates The Constitution on its drive for safety and joins with it in the appeal to all Atlantans to make the streets of the city more tenable to life and limb."

We further point out, as we have in previous issues, that there are many places in the north side which lend themselves to the spectra as places of advantage.

North sides should learn these places and exercise due care when driving on streets which have dangerous curves and blind corners.

But above all, north sides should learn to drive with less speed. The pull-mell rushing to and from the city in the morning and at evening does not produce as many accidents as might be expected. Statistics seem to show that fatal accidents are less liable to occur at these times than at any other.

Fatalities most often occur when streets are least crowded with traffic. In the roar of traffic and the clangor of horns, drivers are forced into keen attention. But in the later hours they are less apt to keep their eyes on the road.

We submit that the habit of fast driving and dodging, acquired in the rush hours is very likely carried over into other hours of driving, but the concentration on driving is lost with the absence of heavy traffic. With speed continued and precaution diminished, accidents are invited, and occur all too frequently.

Two Fliers Injured.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 23.—(P)—Two army fliers were injured when an army plane crashed while landing on the parade ground at Plattsburg barracks today.

The pilot, Lt. Col. Raymond A. Young Jr., of Mitchell Field, received slight injuries. His co-pilot was badly lacerated. Staff Sergeant Frank J. Auringer, of Plattsburg barracks, suffered fractures of one arm and wrist.

Smith and Harvey were tried and convicted in federal district court in Rome on charges of having held up and robbed two bank messengers of approximately $8,000 on August 24,

MUENCH NEIGHBORS TESTIFY IN BABY SUIT

Maid Tells of 'Arrival' of Mistress' 'Gift of God'
Infant.

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 23.—(P)—Lawyers today called upon the next-door neighbors of Mrs. Nellie Tipton Muench in an attempt to refute her claim to motherhood of the "gift of God" baby.

Two residents of the fashionable neighborhood in which Mrs. Muench lives took the witness stand in behalf of Anna Ware, unwed domestic, who claimed in her habeas corpus application that the plaintiff was in the custody of Mrs. Muench and intended to "palm it off" as her own.

After their testimony, Wille Mary Cobb, negro maid in the Muench home, testified she was not there at the time the child reputedly was born, but upon arriving at 1 a. m. was greeted by Mrs. Muench's husband, a physician, who said "Mrs. Muench has just had her baby."

Red-haired Mrs. Muench, sister of a state supreme court judge, announced the birth of a son to her on August 18, the day after the Ware baby was born and disappeared, and hailed it "a gift from God in my time of despair." At the time she was preparing for trial on a charge of kidnapping Dr. Isaac D. Kelley. She was acquitted.

Milton S. Landau and Mrs. John Franciscus, who occupy homes on either side of the Muench residence, said they had heard reports throughout the summer that Mrs. Muench was expecting a baby, but neither had obtained any indications that she was approaching motherhood.

In reply to close questioning, the maid said Mrs. Helen Breoyer, and a man Dr. Muench referred to as "Doctor" were at the Muench home when she returned there and was greeted with the baby announcement.

The witness said she did not know the name of the "Doctor." She described the baby now in the Muench home as "just like" Mrs. Muench. Later she said it had red hair and blue eyes.

Miss Ware asserted her baby was removed from a midwife's home shortly after it was born, but Mrs. Muench and her husband, Dr. Ludwig O. Muench, Jones yesterday admitted he had made arrangements to obtain custody of the child, but said it was for a "Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Palmer in Memphis."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building in the corridor of the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

Another photographer, H. S. Williamson, was standing outside the federal building as he waited to watch Shushan leave the building. Williams said one man lunged at him and another attempted to grab his camera.

Philip Guarisco, Times-Picayune-photographer, who snapped the picture, said he had seen the man who had made a picture. He grabbed at the camera and said: "The hell you didn't make a picture. I saw you."

"About that time Johnny Wells, deputy United States marshal, came up and grabbed Votier by the nap of the neck and put him out of the court room."

SCHOOL CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM HITS SNAG

Provision for Payment Must Be Made Without Crippling Work.

Atlanta's board of education yesterday charged the buildings and grounds committee, headed by George W. Powell, with the responsibility of evolving a program for construction of the $800,000 school building program in co-operation with WPA, using the services of local architects.

After two hours in a futile effort to arrive at a conclusion, the board directed the committee to confer with local WPA officials, architects and others interested, and attempt to submit a solution of the perplexing problem to the board at a special meeting which President Ernest J. Brewer will call when the committee concludes its work.

Under the projected construction program, the city is to provide one-half of the costs of materials, WPA furnishing all labor and the remaining half of the material costs. No provision has been made for architectural services, and a group of leaders in the profession, led by J. W. Armstead Jr. of Robert & Company, yesterday told the board architects "want to perform a service and also save the city money by providing good substantial construction."

Regular fees for drawings, specifications and supervision are 6 per

Happily Wedded Couple Give Hints for Success

Hints for living a happy married life were given yesterday by George W. Bosman, 70, and Mrs. Bosman, who celebrated their forty-seventh wedding anniversary.

"Just always remember there's two sides to all questions," Bosman suggested smiling. "Try never to say a thing you would not like said to you. Remember that you'll regret the mean, the harsh things you say. If for any reason you grow very angry, don't say anything, just walk away and think things over."

Mr. and Mrs. Bosman have a likeable personality. The First National bank. He and Mrs. Bosman have known each other for 60 years.

was outlined previous to the submission of the $275,000 school bond is-

PLANE CRASH PROGRAM TO BE STAGED SUNDAY

Postponed by Rains, Pilot's Dive To Take Place as Planned.

The two-hour thrill program at Lakewood park which last Sunday was postponed because of rain, will be presented in full at Lakewood starting at 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Captain F. E. Frakes, stunt pilot and movie double, announced Wednesday.

Rain, which fell until the hour of the program, wet the track so badly it was impossible to iron it out in time to present the program last Sunday, he explained.

Equipped with a plane which he purchased Saturday, Captain Frakes, as the climax to the thrill program, will dive from 2,000 feet into a ring of fire on the surface of the lake, he said. He explained that he would be in the cockpit of the plane when it strikes the surface of the lake.

Among the stunts which have been arranged for presentation in front of the grandstand is the one in which five automobiles will be driven through a wall of fire 150 feet in diameter. Only four of the cars will emerge from the fire, the fifth having vanished.

Another feature will be the antique automobile race in which five old automobiles have been entered. The cars will be driven by drivers who have entered other cars in the race. The last car to cross the finish line is proclaimed winner of the event.

Six stock model automobiles, driven by local amateur drivers, have been entered for the stock car race.

A daring exhibition of motor boat piloting, including ski-jumping through a ring of fire, aquaplaning and other stunts, will be seen in the curtain-raiser.

An automobile crash in which two automobiles will crash and then explode will occupy a conspicuous place on the program.

An exhibition of motorcycle riding, including several stunts, will be included in the program.

Several of the movie stunt acts will re-enact thrilling automobile chases which they originally performed before the cameras in the filming of gangster and G-men pictures.

CLIPPER IS EN ROUTE TO BASE AT ALAMEDA

HONOLULU, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Pan-American Airways' clipper plane took off from Pearl harbor at 7:31 p.m., eastern standard time, on the last lap of its eastward flight from Guam to Alameda, Cal.

Praises Garden School

POWELL MADDOX.

GARDEN SCHOOL TO TEACH OWNERS OF HOMES TO IMPROVE PROPERTY

Atlanta who attend The Constitution's garden school October 30 through November 1 in the auditorium of the Woman's Club will be learning how to enhance the value of their property as they learn the technique of garden building.

This was the message yesterday of Powell Maddox, vice president of the Atlanta Real Estate Board and president of Maddox & Tisinger, realtors, with offices in the Standard building.

"Gardening and general beautification of property surrounding a home is something the home buying public has paid attention to only in recent years," Mr. Maddox said.

"Now it's the well landscaped home that commands the best price. In many cases the floor plan, the exterior or the interior of a house will not be what the client demands. But a beautiful garden, a well-thought-out landscaping plan will decide in favor of the purchase. That has happened frequently in recent years."

"And the benefit derived from The Constitution's school is the valuable assistance a person planning to buy property and build a home will receive. They'll see how their own ideas of landscaping can be applied to the terrain of a piece of property they are considering. More and more often in recent years we have called landscape architects into conference with us and our clients when a purchase of property was under consideration."

"Then, of course, there's the government's recognition of the new trend. The FHA will loan extra money to the prospective house builder to include plans for beautification of the property. The school is a good plan considered from any angle."

Mr. Fletcher Pearson Crown, expert gardener and interesting lecturer, will conduct the four-day series of morning sessions, running from 10 to 11:30 o'clock.

OSCAR STRAUSS BUYS FAIRVIEW ROAD HOME

A home at 1424 Fairview road, N.E., has been bought by Oscar Strauss, Jr., advertising manager of Rich's, Incorporated.

The price was cited as $17,500. Mrs. Adelaide Bodenheier was the seller. The house, a two-story brick structure, is situated on lot 150 by 280 feet. It is said to be one of the show places of the section. Mr. and Mrs. Strauss will move into the residence shortly, it was said.

ATTORNEY IN FLORIDA SEEKS GOVERNORSHIP

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 23.—(P)—B. F. Davis, of Paxon, former chairman of the State Racing Commission, formally announced tonight his candidacy for the democratic nomination for Governor in the 1936 elections.

OFFICER RATLEDGE DIES AT RESIDENCE

Atlanta Policeman Succumbs After Long Illness; Funeral Services Today.

Patrolman L. E. Ratledge, for 13 years a member of the Atlanta police force, died yesterday at his residence, 594 Gresham street, after a long illness.

Patrolman Ratledge was stricken about a year ago, but recovered sufficiently to return to his work. He was taken ill again recently.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, W. H., J. E. and A. L. Ratledge; three brothers, E. L., N. B. and H. L. Ratledge; and a sister, Mrs. John Betchart.

Funeral services will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from Ormewood Park Presbyterian church with the Rev. W. E. Crane and Dr. Richard Orme Flinn officiating. John P. Wilkins, F. E. and A. M. will conduct graveside services in Greenwood cemetery. Patrolman Ratledge also was a member of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

SCOTTISH RITE MASON'S ELECT VIRGINIA MAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—(P)—B. F. Davis, of Robert S. Craman of Richmond, Va., as grand master of state was announced today by the supreme council of Scottish Rite Masons, southern jurisdiction.

Garnett N. Morgan, of Nashville, Tenn., was continued as treasurer general.

"BANKING ON CHARACTER FOR A QUARTER CENTURY"

Bank Loans on Automobiles
EXTENDED OVER ONE YEAR
No Co-CMakers No Endorsers Low Rates for Example . . .

Suppose you need $400.00
You give note for 440.77
Total cost including interest and all charges 40.77
You receive cash 400.00
You pay eleven monthly payments of $36.75
And one of $36.52
Similar schedules apply to loans of other amounts.

This plan may be used on your present car or a late model—the purchase of a new car or for refinancing balance due on your car.*

MORRIS PLAN BANK OF GEORGIA
ESTABLISHED 1914
66 Pryor St. Between Peachtree and Auburn WA. 5283
Member of Federal Deposit Insurance Corp.

Y.M.C.A. CITES INCREASE IN LOCAL MEMBERSHIP

An increase in membership of 1,900 was cited yesterday by the Y. M. C. A. on Luckie street, as it celebrated its 21st anniversary in the present building.

The Y. M. C. A. was first organized here in 1873, being housed in the present Atlanta Chamber of Commerce building from 1886 until about 1911. Its present building, redecorated, was opened on October 2, 1914. W. E. Newill, of Inman Park, was the first paid member on the roll, and J. P. Jackson was secretary at that time. Philip M. Colbert is the present secretary.

Another feature will be the antique automobile race in which five old automobiles have been entered. The cars will be driven by drivers who have entered other cars in the race. The last car to cross the finish line is proclaimed winner of the event.

Six stock model automobiles, driven by local amateur drivers, have been entered for the stock car race.

A daring exhibition of motor boat piloting, including ski-jumping through a ring of fire, aquaplaning and other stunts, will be seen in the curtain-raiser.

An exhibition of motorcycle riding, including several stunts, will be included in the program.

Several of the movie stunt acts will re-enact thrilling automobile chases which they originally performed before the cameras in the filming of gangster and G-men pictures.

CLIPPER IS EN ROUTE TO BASE AT ALAMEDA

HONOLULU, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Pan-American Airways' clipper plane took off from Pearl harbor at 7:31 p.m., eastern standard time, on the last lap of its eastward flight from Guam to Alameda, Cal.

Excitement ran high on several occasions and once Williford jumped to his feet and called a witness a liar. That witness was R. A. Moore, Tifton lawyer, who told of previous charges against Williford.

An instance where it was alleged Williford forged the name of the late Judge J. T. Knight, of Nashville, Ga., to a disbarment proceeding and to an order of the state bar association.

It was related by several Solicitor Stephens said the Tift superior court clerk recognized the forgery at the time and refused to file the proceeding and dismissed it.

The indictment for perjury on five charges grew out of Williford's answer to Boykin's disbarment proceeding here.

The indictment for perjury on five charges grew out of Williford's answer to Boykin's disbarment proceeding here.

COMMERCIAL HIGH TO GIVE CARNIVAL

Program Tomorrow Night To Provide Fund for New Piano.

A carnival will be sponsored by the Parent-Teacher Association of Commercial High school in the school auditorium at 7 o'clock tomorrow night, to obtain money to buy a new piano, it was announced yesterday.

Many booths, containing novelties and food at nominal prices, will be offered by clubs of the school. There will be no general admission charge, it was announced. Free stage shows will be featured at intervals during the program.

Attractions which already have been arranged on the side of the industrial show, freak show, a country store, a Mexican village and fortune-telling, palm-reading and crystal-gazing booths, it was said. Miss Anne O'Calaghan, director of the Glee Club, said yesterday that musicians of the school greatly appreciated the work of the Parent-Teacher Association and also of the school clubs.

Cubs taking part in the carnival include the Glee Club, Orchestral Club, Dramatics Club, Art Club, co-ed staff, Girl Reserves, Girls' Athletic Association, Hi-Y, Hooks and Crooks, Euclid Club, Spanish and French clubs, Proctors, Poetry Club, Red Pepper Club, Phoenix Club, the senior class and several boys' clubs.

LAWYER'S PLEA CAUSE OF VERDICT REVERSED

Use of what is termed improper language by an attorney interested in the case yesterday brought a reversal by the supreme court of a $7,500 damage verdict obtained by J. R. Puckett from the Georgia Power Company in Harris superior court.

Puckett, an employee of the Harris Telephone Company, was injured when wires of the power company and the telephone company became crossed.

The opinion was written by Judge Enoch Graham, of McRae, who was filling in on the high court for one of the justices who declined to himself. Judge Graham's decision reversed a previous decision of the court of appeals. The high court held the lawyer had expressed his personal beliefs in his arguments to the jury.

FAST FREIGHT TRAINS BEING GIVEN NAMES

The once-lonely freight train, metamorphosed by the present-day demand for speed and service, has come into a new distinction.

It now has a name in keeping with its importance to the world of transportation, not merely a name. Furthermore, it will take its place in time-table folders with passenger trains.

The Atlanta, Birmingham & Coast railroad is among the first of the roads in the south to introduce the innovation, according to C. B. Keelholz, its traffic manager.

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

Names chosen for three of the trains are descriptive of the particular service they are scheduled to render. Of these two are southbound—one named "The Hustler" and the other "The Overnite." A northbound freight is named "The Marketete."

COMMITTEE REPORTS OF JURY ARE DELAYED

Presentments Will Not Be Returned Before Final Recommendations Nov. 1.

Reports of the three most important subcommittees of the grand jury will not be presented at a special meeting of the full jury this morning, it was understood, last night, as it appeared during the time the presentments will be returned before the final recommendations November 1.

Investigation begun by the committee probing the city police department will probably not be completed before the end of this jury's term, and the report of the grand jury, charged with investigating the county commission, the courts and the solicitor general's office is not ready for presentation, it was said.

More than a dozen witnesses were questioned yesterday by a committee which was appointed last week to probe the affairs of the city during the spring term. Chairman J. T. Lumpkin said his report will not be turned in to the full jury this morning, either.

Simmons Questioned.

J. W. Simmons, clerk of the superior court, was questioned for several hours yesterday, and numerous deputy clerks from his office and at least one witness from the sheriff's office were called in by Lumpkin.

The first witness to appear yesterday morning before the committee was Carlos Lumpkin, former sheriff, who was discharged last month by Clerk Simmons.

Testimony offered by these witnesses was taken down by a court reporter and will be studied and returned to the jury next week as a report. It was understood that the grand jury will be asked to act on conclusions drawn by the entire jury rather than on recommendations made by the committee.

Several witnesses were questioned at length yesterday by the city police probe committee, which is headed by Chairman J. G. Barrow. It was said that this committee will probably be unable to complete its investigation by the end of the term and that the next jury, which will be sworn in November 4, will be requested to carry on with the work already started.

Police "Leads" Furnished.

Brown's investigation has revealed many "leads" and "tips," presumably of protection allegedly furnished bootleggers and lottery operators by city officers, and several weeks more will be required in thoroughly probing

Story of Fawcett's Death in Brazil Is Denied by Norwegian Explorer

Captain of Expeditions Admits Writing Articles for Oslo Newspapers Theorizing That Indians Slewed Noted Britisher.

RIO DE JANEIRO, Oct. 23.—(AP) The "Fawcett mystery," which has intrigued explorers of Brazilian jungles for 10 years, was the subject of revived speculation today on the heels of a denied report that the British explorer was killed by Indians in 1925.

Reports from Oslo, Norway, said a newspaper recited that a Norwegian expedition had been killed by Indians in 1925. Fawcett, missing ever since he led an expedition into interior Brazil, fell victim to Indians, quoting Captain Reidar Lovlie, of Norway.

Lovlie, here preparing for a trip into the hinterland to take pictures and gather material for books, said he had made any such statement. He explained he had written some articles for an Oslo newspaper which theorized that Indians slew Fawcett.

"I never said or wrote that Indians killed Fawcett or even that Fawcett had been killed or was dead," he said.

Lovlie within a few weeks will start a trip which will take him into western Goias along the Araguaia river and the Roncador ridge, thence northward in the upper Matto Grosso and through eastern Paro to Belém on the Amazon river.

The Oslo dispatch related Fawcett's son died of fever at Bakari, the last known station Fawcett visited, and another white companion died of an unknown cause. The explorer was lost somewhere near the unmapped river Colmena, a tributary of the Kinsha. No satisfactory explanation of his disappearance ever has been advanced.

Reiteration that the committee investigating the county commission has completed its probe, and has adopted a report containing certain recommendations was given yesterday by Chairman H. G. King, who said another matter is delaying the publication of special presentations which were expected to be rendered today.

Hundreds of divided opinion among the grand jurors were rife at the courthouse yesterday.

It was said that some wish to make special presentations while others desire to publish the contents of King's report together with the regular findings of the grand jury.

Whatever the course, the presentments scheduled to be returned today have been indefinitely delayed.

TALMADGE BACK HERE AFTER CORDELE TALK

Governor Talmadge returned to his office at the capital yesterday following a visit to Crisp county. He spoke Tuesday at Cordele.

The Governor, who is expected to oppose President Roosevelt in a preference primary in the state next spring, expressed pleasure over his reception at Cordele. In his speech he renewed his attacks on the Roosevelt administration.

"Georgia is all right," the Governor said in commenting on his reception. "The people know what is going on."

NEW TRIAL TODAY IN SHOOTING CASE

Costley and Clark Face Federal Jury on Revised Charge.

J. Hudson Costley, of Conyers, and Robert Clark, negro, go to trial in federal district court today on charges of resisting a federal officer.

The case is, in effect, a retrial of

BROTHER OF EX-MAYOR IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Ralph Sims Unconscious at Crawford Long; Hit-Run Car Kills Man.

Ralph G. Sims, attorney and brother of former Mayor Walter A. Sims, was reported in "fair" condition, although still unconscious, last night in Crawford W. Long hospital, the result of a collision early yesterday on Pace's Ferry road, near North Side drive.

Bob F. Badger, of 1231 West Peachtree street, driver of the other car, was treated at Grady hospital for superficial injuries and was dismissed.

The fourth victim of Atlanta traffic for the year died in Grady hospital yesterday. He was Alfonso Clyde, a negro of a Piedmont avenue address. A hit-and-run driver Piedmont avenue, near Seventh street, hurling him into the air and leaving him on the street as he sped away.

The man died of a crushed skull and chest and other injuries without recovering consciousness.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bishop were recovered from the hospital yesterday at a Crawford W. Long hospital after their wagon had been struck and demolished by a cotton truck near their home outside Fayetteville, Ga.

J. L. Millsaps was the truck driver, according to Fayetteville police. The truck was owned by Charles D. Redwine, president of the Georgia senate. Two negroes, Wes and Sophie Howard, riding on the wagon were injured. The horse was killed.

Leaf Law Case Delayed.

WILSON, N. C., Oct. 23.—(AP) United States Judge I. M. Meekins today continued until November 11 at Raleigh a scheduled hearing on the constitutionality of the Kerr-Smith tobacco control act.

The program will be so arranged that the attendance by the school children will not interfere with others who may wish to see the show at the same hours.

High school pupils are to be granted the special privilege of attending the show from 1:30 to 2:30 p. m.

Announcement was made by F. B. Stewart, managing director of the show, that the school children will be admitted for a special price.

The program will be so arranged that the attendance by the school children will not interfere with others who may wish to see the show at the same hours.

The Governor, who is expected to oppose President Roosevelt in a preference primary in the state next spring, expressed pleasure over his reception at Cordele. In his speech he renewed his attacks on the Roosevelt administration.

"Georgia is all right," the Governor said in commenting on his reception. "The people know what is going on."

Costley and Clark Face Federal Jury on Revised Charge.

J. Hudson Costley, of Conyers, and Robert Clark, negro, go to trial in federal district court today on charges of resisting a federal officer.

The case is, in effect, a retrial of

Advance in Production of Steel Expected To Increase Pay Rolls

American Iron and Steel Institute Estimates Output at 51.8 Per Cent of Capacity; Highest October Level Since 1930.

By RADER WINGET.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(AP) Authorities in the steel industry point to the five-year high in the operations rate this week as an indication that employment and payrolls may extend recent gains.

Steel makers this week operated their plants at 51.8 per cent of capacity, as estimated by the American Iron & Steel Institute, the October level since 1930.

On that basis September and October payrolls and employment are expected by some to surpass August figures.

Another factor which has been quiet during the depression is the demand for skilled labor which experts believe should expand with the operating rate.

But there have been indications that the supply of skilled workers is comparatively limited. This would lead to a situation where those not being done in this class should experience a correspondingly greater increase in earnings because of longer hours per week.

SEWER CONTROVERSY CONFERENCES HELD.

Conferences over Atlanta's $6,000,000 sewer program were held yesterday and are being resumed this morning by A. H. Martin, executive assistant to Secretary of the Interior Ickes, J. Houston Johnston, state director of the PWA, and Clark Johnston, chief engineer of PWA in Georgia.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll and the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,892.

In the year before, with operations between 42 and 45 per cent of capacity, employment was 417,020 and the payroll was $37,322,250.

During September of 1934, when the operations rate ranged from 18.4 to 24.2 per cent of capacity, there were 38,000 workers on the payroll that month was $29,142,

LIFE UNDERWRITERS' MEETING TOMORROW

Birmingham Association To Present Program at Atlanta's Monthly Session.

The Atlanta Life Underwriters' Association will hold their monthly meeting at 12:30 o'clock tomorrow at the Atlanta Athletic Club.

The Birmingham association is coming to Atlanta to conduct the meeting. E. A. Raughley, president of the Birmingham association, will preside and will introduce the four speakers, who will speak.

J. Furniss Lee, general agent for Alabama of the Mutual Benefit Life, will speak on the subject, "1935 Taxation Laws."

The Agent's Mission" is the subject to be presented by W. I. Pittman, manager of the north Alabama agency of the John Hancock Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Using a timely subject, "The Field Man—From the Viewpoint of the Insurance Company," L. D. Dreer will give some interesting information. He is educational director of the New York Life agency of Birmingham, and was for four years insurance commissioner for Alabama.

Tom J. Huey will speak on the subject, "Membership in the Professional Insurance Company." L. D. Dreer will give some interesting information. He is educational director of the New York Life agency of Birmingham, and was for four years insurance commissioner for Alabama.

CONTEST OF BARBERS WILL BE HELD HERE

The second of the series of haircutting and other contests, featuring both men and women, for barbers, shavers and members and their employees of the Atlanta Chapter, Associated Master Barbers of America, will be held tonight.

This contest, held at 9 o'clock at Moreau College, 45 1/2 Peachtree to 10th, will be featuring four different types, according to the announcement by L. V. Hall, of Hapeville, president. Prizes will be awarded for the best haircuts.

Debutantes

"Really,
Ethics
are amazing."

From one to three Ethics will positively sweeten the breath and refresh the mouth after food, smokes and drinks. Really, my dear, you should always carry Ethics."

Joints Stiff?

• Cold rainy weather makes muscles, joints ache, pain. Just get some penetrating Penorub and dose it on. It "hits the painspot" bringing 10-second relief. Buy Penorub today from your druggist. 1oz. bottle 35c; 3 oz. 60c; 8oz. $1; 16 oz. $1.75. It's always economy to buy Penorub.

Penorub
The Penetrating Rub
That Rubs Out Pain

New Powder Makes

FALSE TEETH

Stick Tight All Day Long

Now you can wear false teeth more firmly and more comfortably than ever. A new improved powder called FAS-TEETH is applied upon your plates every morning gives all day comfort and a tight fit. FAS-TEETH is the only oral wear that lasts. Try FAS-TEETH and you'll never be without false teeth and comfort. Get FAS-TEETH at any good drug store. (adv.)

Boils? Ask Grandma

Get Gray's Ointment. Aids in relieving the pain and discomfort of Boils—Minor Skin Irritations—Abrasions—Superficial Cuts—Burns and Minor Bruises. Famous since 1820. 25¢ at all drug stores. W. F. Gray Co., Nashville, Tenn.

Stomach Ulcers

(caused by hyperacidity) are now being effectively and safely treated at home through the use of Von's Pink Tablets together with proper diet. Those who need to suffer from Ulcers caused by excess hyperacidity or other conditions due to the same cause as distress after eating, stomach pains, gas, sour stomach, indigestion, constipation, loss of sleep or time from work. Get quick relief without operation. Buy a bottle of Von's Pink Tablets at any Jacobs' drug store or write today for FREE booklet and full information to Atlanta Von Company, 736 Walton Blvd., Atlanta, Ga. (adv.)

for FIRST AID in Relieving Common Skin Ailments or Injuries always rely on

Resinol

To Address Underwriters

E. A. RAUGHLEY.

VARIETY PROGRAM IN "FOLLIES OF '35"

K. C. Entertainment Offers Amusements of Many Types.

Entertainment for everyone will be offered by a cast of 300 performers in the "Follies of '35," which will be sponsored by the Knights of Columbus in the Woman's Club auditorium October 30 and 31 for the benefit of the charity fund. Gene Trader, director, announced yesterday.

Scenes from popular light operas, bits of grand operas, ballets, national dances, dramatic skits and modern syncopated ensemble numbers will be presented by a company of professional comedians. Mr. Trader said, "Costumes and special scenic and lighting effects have been brought here for the performance from New York city."

A feature of the program will be a scene from the opera, "Il Trovatore," to be presented by Miss Margaret Baker Battle. Leading roles will be sung by Miss Mary Muldrow, Miss Emily Webb and James V. Calhoun. In "Miserere," the stars will be surrounded by a large company.

Specialty acts will include "Hear Me," a dramatic "blowout" by Miss Florence Stevenson, Miss Mary Ann Wrigley and Gene Trader; "The Enigma," another skit, by Mrs. John Bradfield, Miss Sara Dicey, Judge Charles Cannon, Dwight Hollowell and the director, and a dance by dancers from Miss Virginia Seaman's studio. Ensemble numbers will be danced by scores of young girls and their partners.

Solo numbers will include the "Gypsy Love Song," by Ben Blauov; an accrodi; solo by Andrew J. McGowen Jr.; a toe ballet by Miss Mary Ann Linane; an acrobatic dance by Miss Laurie Lasseter; a fast buck dance by Miss Catherine Dittie; an oriental dance by Miss Elizabeth Hiltz; and a original presentation of "Limehouse Blues" by Miss Mary Lou Methvin, Jim Harvey and the director.

EMORY FRATERNITY
LISTS ANNOUNCED

University Chapters Announce Upperclassmen's Roster as Rushing Ends.

Social fraternities at Emory University have announced the pledging of 39 upperclassmen, in addition to the freshmen pledges listed at the close of rush week.

The pledges are as follows:

Alpha Tau Omega: Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo, N. Y.; Ben Beasley, Edgar Smith and Buddy Dean, Atlanta; and Lesley Hand, McDonough.

Phi Delta Theta: James Cook, Porterdale; Evans Gainesville; Edward Parkers, Waynesboro; Robert Sewell, Oxford; Hay McNamee, Americus; James Christian, Chatham, Ga., and Joseph Pace, Bogalusa, La.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Frank Gray, Georgetown; Anthony Walks, Dublin; Roy Johnson, Thompson; Preston Turner, Emory University; George Cooper, Americus; Marion Clarke, Carrollton; and Jim Combs, Covington.

Chi Phi: Charles Kidd, Hollowell, Delta Tau Delta.

Fred Smith, Lakeland, Fla.

Ralph Daffin, Marietta, and David Warner, Opelika, Ala.

Lambda Chi Alpha: Daniel Basinski, Buffalo,

MURDER IS CHARGED TO WILLIE SAUNDERS

Race Track Companion Also Indicted in Girl's Death.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 23.—(AP)—Murder charges in the slaying of Mrs. Evelyn Sliwinski, which climaxed a wild party here last Saturday night, were placed tonight against Willie Saunders, national famous jockey, and Walter Schaeffer, an exercise boy for the Headley stable.

Saunders was arraigned in county court here today and released in bond of $5,000. Schaeffer, who admitted he was driving Saunders' automobile the night Mrs. Sliwinski was killed, waived extradition, after being taken in custody at Baltimore.

Both Saunders and Schaeffer said Mrs. Sliwinski had accompanied them on the party. Schaeffer's version was that Mrs. Sliwinski got out of the car after a quarrel with the other girl in the group. Saunders said Mrs. Sliwinski got out "because she wanted to."

Schaeffer said the three remaining in the car drove on, then returned to see another car circling the spot where Mrs. Sliwinski alighted. They saw her body lying in the highway, he said, but did not stop.

Saunders Surrenders.

The mangy body of Mrs. Sliwinski was found on the Ohio river road near here early Sunday. Mrs. Agatha Mackison, 28, the victim's companion on the round of Louisville's "hot spots," told police Mrs. Sliwinski was beaten, thrown from the automobile and run over twice.

Sought by police after Mrs. Mackison had made him a picture member of the party, Saunders came here today from Lexington, Ky., and surrendered. Denying he was to blame for the woman's death, Saunders admitted to detectives he was with Mrs. Sliwinski on her last ride.

Stolid and composed, the jockey replied that Mrs. Sliwinski became ill and said he got out. He said he opened the door for her, let her out and the car drove on.

"She got out because she wanted to," he added. He said the young woman was drunk, but when asked if he or Schaeffer was drunk he replied, "No, I was all right and the boy, who was driving was all right, too."

Auto Hit Girl.

Saunders said the driver later turned around and came back. He said he had no personal knowledge of the car striking the woman, but inferred from the driver's remarks that she was on her coming back. He said he had a feeling that the car had bumped something, but as he was in the back seat he didn't know what it was.

Asked by detectives why he didn't report it to police as a hit-run accident, Saunders was instructed by his attorney, W. C. Holloman, not to recollect that Mrs. Mackison was screaming at the time of the "bump" and he denied hearing a threat to Mrs. Mackison when she was left at her home: "Don't say a word, he replied. "I was all right and the boy, who was driving was all right."

EXERCISE BOY ADMITS DRIVING SAUNDERS CAR

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A gay party and automobile ride ending fatally for Mrs. Evelyn Sliwinski was described here tonight by Walter Schaeffer, race track exercise boy, who denied he or Jockey Willie Saunders was responsible for the Louisville woman's death.

Schaeffer told his story to Baltimore detectives. He was held at the request of Louisville authorities.

Detective lieutenants quoted the 25-year-old exercise boy as admitting he was driving Saunders' automobile Saturday night when he, the jockey, Mrs. Sliwinski and Mrs. Agatha Mackison were killed.

Mrs. Sliwinski, whose broken body was found on the Ohio river road near Louisville the next day, got out of the machine after a quarrel with Mrs. Mackison, Schaeffer said. The three remaining in the machine drove about two miles farther on and then turned around and went back to the place where Mrs. Sliwinski had alighted.

As they approached, he related, they saw another car circling the spot. When they drove by, he asserted, Mrs. Sliwinski's body was lying on the ground. They did not stop, he continued, but went on to Louisville and took Mrs. Mackison home.

The implication was that the "other machine" had struck and fatally injured the woman.

ETHICS
DELICIOUS CONFECTION
Tastes so good to eat
FOR MOUTH
freshness
AFTER: FOOD, DRINKS, SMOKES
FINE PRODUCTS CORP., AUGUSTA-ATLANTA

MALARIA

Speedy Relief of Chills and Fever

Don't let Malaria tear you apart with its racking chills and burning fever. Trust to no home-made or mere makeshift remedies. Take the medical prepared especially for Malaria—Grove's Tastless Chill Tonic.

Grove's Tastless Chill Tonic gives real relief from Malaria because it's a scientific combination of tasteless, cooling and antiseptic ingredients that kill the Malaria infection in the blood. The iron builds up the system and helps fortify against further attack. At the first sign of any attack of Malaria take Grove's Tastless Chill Tonic. Better still take it regularly during the Malaria season to ward off the disease. Grove's Tastless Chill Tonic is absolutely harmless and tastes good.

Grove's Tastless Chill Tonic now comes in two sizes, 50c and $1. The $1 size contains 2½ times as much as the 50c size and gives you 25% more for your money. Get bottle today at any drugstore.

CHICAGO COUNCIL BACKS PLAY BAN

"Tobacco Road" Attorneys, However, Appeal to U. S. for Injunction.

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(AP)—Decrying "rulgarity and social immorality," the city council today approved Mayor Edward J. Kelly's action in closing the stage show, "Tobacco Road."

The aldermen unanimously adopted a resolution endorsing the mayor's stand while attorneys for the producers hurried to federal court to seek an injunction restraining authorities from further interference.

Federal Judge William H. Holly announced he would read the script and rule on the producers' petition for injunction tomorrow.

Attorney Harold Keele expressed the belief that not 5 per cent of the people who had seen the play were shocked. He charged the mayor had deprived the producers of property rights without due process of the law.

Saunders was arraigned in county court here today and released in bond of $5,000. Schaeffer, who admitted he was driving Saunders' automobile the night Mrs. Sliwinski was killed, waived extradition, after being taken in custody at Baltimore.

Both Saunders and Schaeffer said Mrs. Sliwinski had accompanied them on the party. Schaeffer's version was that Mrs. Sliwinski got out of the car after a quarrel with the other girl in the group. Saunders said Mrs. Sliwinski got out "because she wanted to."

Schaeffer said the three remaining in the car drove on, then returned to see another car circling the spot where Mrs. Sliwinski alighted. They saw her body lying in the highway, he said, but did not stop.

Saunders Surrenders.

The mangy body of Mrs. Sliwinski was found on the Ohio river road near here early Sunday. Mrs. Agatha Mackison, 28, the victim's companion on the round of Louisville's "hot spots," told police Mrs. Sliwinski was beaten, thrown from the automobile and run over twice.

Sought by police after Mrs. Mackison had made him a picture member of the party, Saunders came here today from Lexington, Ky., and surrendered. Denying he was to blame for the woman's death, Saunders admitted to detectives he was with Mrs. Sliwinski on her last ride.

Acting Police Captain Timothy H. Schaeffer was among the first police to arrive at the chop house at 12 Park street.

He saw Saunders at the table, holding his hand to his side, and walked over to him. Schaeffer was pale and barely frightened.

"You're Dutch Schultz, aren't you?"

Rowe asked.

"You're shot, aren't you?"

"Yes," Schaeffer answered.

Rowe aided Schultz in walking to the door.

A report made to police by hospital officials said the former been baron was shot in the right side and is not expected to live.

"I think they got me in the liver,"

Schaeffer had told Rowe.

"Oh, I guess you'll live," the officer replied.

Schultz Fighting Extradition.

Schaeffer had been in Newark since his arrest in Perth Amboy, N. J., several weeks ago on a charge of evading payment of his income tax, for which the government twice tried him in New York, in Syracuse and Malone, N. Y. The court reached an agreement the first trial and he was found not guilty at the second.

He appeared before Federal Judge William Clark several days ago fighting proceedings for removal to New York city, where the income tax would again be pressed. Yesterday Judge Clark decided he was qualified to preside at the removal proceedings.

Schaeffer has been living at the Robert Treat hotel, a few blocks from the scene of the shooting. As far as he was concerned, the men wounded with him were his bodyguards, Schultz would give police no information about them.

At the hospital it was said both bodyguards were in serious condition, one of them from loss of blood.

EMORY STUDENT GOES INTO 3-DAY HYPNOTISM

Continued From First Page.

DRIVING SAUNDERS CAR

BALTIMORE, Oct. 23.—(AP)—A gay party and automobile ride ending fatally for Mrs. Evelyn Sliwinski was described here tonight by Walter Schaeffer, race track exercise boy, who denied he or Jockey Willie Saunders was responsible for the Louisville woman's death.

Schaeffer told his story to Baltimore detectives. He was held at the request of Louisville authorities.

Detective lieutenants quoted the 25-year-old exercise boy as admitting he was driving Saunders' automobile Saturday night when he, the jockey, Mrs. Sliwinski and Mrs. Agatha Mackison were killed.

Mrs. Sliwinski, whose broken body was found on the Ohio river road near Louisville the next day, got out of the machine after a quarrel with Mrs. Mackison, Schaeffer said. The three remaining in the machine drove about two miles farther on and then turned around and went back to the place where Mrs. Sliwinski had alighted.

As they approached, he related, they saw another car circling the spot. When they drove by, he asserted, Mrs. Sliwinski's body was lying on the ground. They did not stop, he continued, but went on to Louisville and took Mrs. Mackison home.

The implication was that the "other machine" had struck and fatally injured the woman.

STAR EXODUS SEEN

Movie Magnates Fear Actors
Will Flee Taxes.

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 23.—(AP)—The motion picture chieftains professed tonight to foresee a possible exodus of highly paid movie stars from California because of the income tax.

The players themselves were silent. The fears of the magnates, Joseph M. Schenck, president, and Darryl Zanuck, vice president of Twentieth Century-Fox, were expressed after William Randolph Hearst said he would close his "places" in California and reside most of the time in New York because of the new income tax.

Zanuck accused the tax of having driven George Arliss away from the American film industry into the arms of the British companies.

The California tax calls for a levy ranging from 1 to 15 per cent of net income.

Heart said various taxes would take 80, possibly 90 per cent of his income.

Heads said various taxes would take 80, possibly 90 per cent of his income.

Andrew Carnegie's Anniversary
To Be Marked by Library Opening

Atlanta will celebrate the 100th anniversary of the birth of the American philanthropist, Andrew Carnegie, internationally known 25 by opening the new annex to the Carnegie library. Miss Jessie Hopkins, librarian, announced yesterday.

The structure, which will provide space for 75,000 additional volumes, extension of virtually every department and activity of the present unit.

The annex fronts 40 feet on Forsyth street, parallel the old building, its entire depth and is three stories high.

Extension for reference, circulation, fiction, magazine and newspaper, children's and film departments are provided. The architecture is along the lines of the old structure and the interiors, when completed, will be beautified by his anniversary for the hanging of an oil portrait of Carnegie.

The library has been given four of the paintings done by Luis Mora, famous Spanish portrait painter. One will hang in the main library and appropriately appointed.

DAUGHTER-IN-LAW HELD FOR MURDER

Mrs. Thelma Bixton Indicted in Slaying of Mother-in-Law.

CHESTERTOWN, Md., Oct. 23.—

The Kent county grand jury today returned an indictment charging Mrs.

Thelma Buxton, 28, with the murder of her mother-in-law, Mrs. E. E. Buxton, 69.

The elder Mrs. Buxton was hacked to death in her apartment here. The younger Mrs. Buxton, wife of Dr.

Kenneth Buxton, professor at Washington College here, is now at Spring

Green.

It is known when Mrs. Buxton will be brought to trial. She was examined by alienists in the jail and the report was that she was "mentally unsound."

Defense Counsel F. Scott Beck said his course of action would depend on action taken by State's Attorney

George H. Preston. It is known, however, that the case will not come to trial this week. All Kent county criminal cases have been postponed until next week.

The elder Mrs. Buxton was buried in Worcester, Mass.

French Warships Sail FOR MEDITERRANEAN

Continued From First Page.

withdrew some of its ships from the Mediterranean, recalling that Great Britain had expressed willingness to meet II Duce half way.

Pledge to Britain.

Members of the foreign affairs committee had asked Laval whether soliarity with Britain was likely to affect the country's relations with Rome.

They said the premier's realization that a promise of naval aid to Great Britain had weakened France's ties with Italy, which had tried to make its strong statement that Laval's troops from Libya.

Laval made it clear, members of the committee stated, that his intervention at Rome was responsible for

WE WILL NOT BE UNDERSOLD

... should any store attempt to undersell us on certain items—our prices will be immediately changed to meet or beat those prices.

HIGH'S BASEMENTPowerful Money-Saving Demonstration! Proving That---*5 Great Sale DaysTODAY, FRIDAY
and
SATURDAY

EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY HAS THE RIGHT TO LOOK HIS BEST—EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY HAS THE RIGHT TO BE WELL-DRESSED—EVERY MEMBER OF THE FAMILY HAS THE RIGHT TO GOOD QUALITY MERCHANDISE...at PRICES ALL CAN AFFORD TO PAY

A powerful BASEMENT-WIDE demonstration—proving without a shadow of a doubt that HIGH'S BASEMENT is the Value-Basement-Store of Atlanta! Every department of this great, big, busy Basement Store is vibrating with eagerness for this exciting THREE-DAY SALE to begin. Every value in these columns is extraordinary.

Every department is ready for you—with the things you, or your family, will need for fall and winter! Seasonable merchandise of high quality—at prices that set new records in value-giving. Come today! Friday! or Saturday!—see for yourself why HIGH'S BASEMENT is the most-talked-of BASEMENT STORE in Atlanta.

$22.95-$25 Fur-TrimmedCloth Coats
$16Luxurious with:
MANCHURIAN WOLF
CANADIAN WOLF
MARMINK : RED FOX
SEALINE : FRENCH BEAVER

Bound to be the greatest sale of them all! The season's outstanding fashions—fine quality wools, beautifully tailored—all lined and interlined! Black, brown or green—sizes 14 to 50! Choose today—Save gloriously!

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Women's $1.59 Wash Frocks

Vat-dyed—prints, stripes, figures! All with LONG SLEEVES—and full cut and long! Generous hem! Pleated skirts! Sizes 14 to 52.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

94cMen's Wool Suits
Men's Topcoats

Regularly $18!

See their quality—the sight alone will convince you it's TIME TO BUY today, men! Students' and conservative models—oxfords, browns, grays, blues. All sizes.

$12

HIGH'S BASEMENT

$4.98-$5.98 StunningAutumn Frocks
$3.00New Materials:
FRIENDSHIP CREPES
ACETATE CREPES
HEAVY ROUGH WEAVES
SMOOTH CREPE WEAVES

And—Fashion-favorites, every one! Styled for any and every winter occasion—for school, business, street and afternoon! Glowing Renaissance colors—enchanting metal, satin and lingerie trims! Black, brown, navy, too! Sizes 14 to 52.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Women's $2.98 Crepe Frocks

Rayon crepes—in attractive prints and solids that you'll wear everywhere—all day—all winter! Neatly tailored—sizes 14 to 52.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

$1.19Men's $1.98 Work Pants

Covered in blue or gray. Sizes 29 to 42.

$1

Men's Pajamas

$1.29 broadcloth—fast color solids, patterns. Coat style, all sizes.

89c

Men's Shorts

Reg. 29c broadcloth—fast colors. Also combed knit shirts—all sizes. Ea. 19c

19c

Men's $2.50 Felt Hats

Manufacturer's samples—Fall styles, colors—in all head sizes.

$1

$1.29 Krinkle Bed Spreads

Permanent stripe—krinkled. In smart boudoir colors—size 80x105 inches. Ea. 89c

$1.29

$1.79 Spreads

Colonial cotton—soft pastel shades. Size 80x105 inches. Ea. 1.59

$1.59

$1 Blankets

Cotton plaid—in attractive colors. Full 70x80 inches. Ea. 69c

69c

HIGH'S BASEMENTFor Sports! For Dress! Reg. $15*Untrimmed Coats $10Tailored of:
WARM FLEECES
PLAID BACKS NIFTY TWEEDS
FRIEZE WOOLS

Elegance—when you want tailored simplicity—and do they look swanky with your fur neckpiece! Wear them to town—to the game—traveling! Silk lined and interlined—black, tan, navy, oxford, brown. Sizes 14 to 46.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

\$1 Full-Fashioned HoseFIRST QUALITY—sheer, clear chiffons in 45 gauge! Imagine such a value—rush for yours! Winter shades, sizes 8 $\frac{1}{2}$ to 10 $\frac{1}{2}$.54c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

$3.98 Corduroy Men's Pants

$2.98

Good heavy quality corduroy in brown or blue. Tailored to fit—built to wear. All sizes.

Boys' Unions

Reg. 59c—cotton knit to keep him warm. Sizes 6 to 16.

39c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Reg. $1.59 Boys' Pants

$1

Tweed knickers with knit cuffs—Cheviot longies! Tailored—sizes 6 to 16.

Boys' Shorts

$1.98 "Tweeduroy" shorts, full lined. Well made for sizes 6 to 12. Pr.

44c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Boys' Shirts

$59c broadcloth shirts—dress style. Solids and patterns. 8 to 16. Ea.

44c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Boys' Felt Hats

$1.98

Good heavy quality corduroy in brown or blue. Tailored to fit—built to wear. All sizes.

Boys' Unions

Reg. 59c—cotton knit to keep him warm. Sizes 6 to 16.

39c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Women's $1.19 Satintone Slips

$92c

"Loon-ray" satintone—beautifully trimmed with lace! Tear-away sizes 34 to 40.

92c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Girls' $7.98 Furred Coats

$5.64

Smart woolens—trimmed with lovely furs—in new colors! Sizes 7 to 16.

5.64

HIGH'S BASEMENT

17c New Fall Prints14cyd.

Guaranteed fast colors—neat prints in dark or light shades. 36 in. wide.

14c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

"Laundry-Pruf" $1.19 Sheets89c

Tested for hard wear—free from all dressing. Size 81x99 inches. Ea.

89c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

Pillow Cases15c

"Worth" to match the sheets! Good quality—size 42x36 in.

15c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

12c Towels9c

Good weight Turkish towels—white with colored borders. Good size.

9c

HIGH'S BASEMENT

1.98BUY ON LIBERAL
"LETTER OF CREDIT"... nowhere in all Atlanta a more liberal type of credit. FIVE MONTHS TO PAY, plus a small carrying charge—only $\frac{1}{2}$ of 1 per cent per month. Apply at Credit Office, 4th Floor.9 A. M. Specials

No Phone, Mail or C. O. D. Orders

Women's 49c Slips

Cotton—built-up and bodice tops. Sizes 36 to 44. Ea.

29cWomen's 49c Gowns

Porto Rican—hand-embroidered. White, pastels. Regular sizes

24cWomen's 69c Unions

Rayon striped cotton, knee-length. Sizes 36 to 44. Pr.

49cChild's 15c Socks

Cotton lace with rayon stripe. All colors, sizes 7-10. Pr.

7cBoys' $3.98 Coats

Sheepined leatherette with Wombat collars. Sizes 4-16. Ea.

$2.69Men's $1 Shirts

Broadcloth—solids and patterns. Collar attached. Sizes 14-16. Ea.

50cWomen's $3.98 Frocks

Travel prints in styles for wear NOW! Only 60 to sell—limit, ONE TO A CUSTOMER! Sizes 14 to 40. Ea.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

\$1Girls' 89c Tub FrocksCrisp, vat-dyed prints in smart styles for sizes 3-6 $\frac{1}{2}$, 7-16, 10-16. Ea.49c*Child's Pajamas

Reg. 89c—fleecy warm flannelette, 2 pc. styles. Sizes 2 to 14.

64cWomen's Pajamas

$1.29 balbriggan or flannelette—2 pcs. Women's sizes. Pr. HIGH'S BASEMENT

89cMen's $1 Broadcloth Shirts

Good quality broadcloth in white, solids and patterns! Well tailored—fast colors. Collars attached—sizes 14 to 17.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

88cWomen's Hats

Values of the season—these chic felts in every becoming style—every stunning new winter color—every wanted headsize—at 88c!

MILLINERY, BASEMENT

Women's ShoesBrand-New Fall Styles!

$1.98

Narrow and Wide Widths!

Suedes, kids, patterns—in styles for every occasion—all sizes.

SHOES, BASEMENT

THE GUMPS—THE HORN OF PLENTY

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE—THANKS

MOON MULLINS—A BIT SNAKEY

DICK TRACY—Bagged

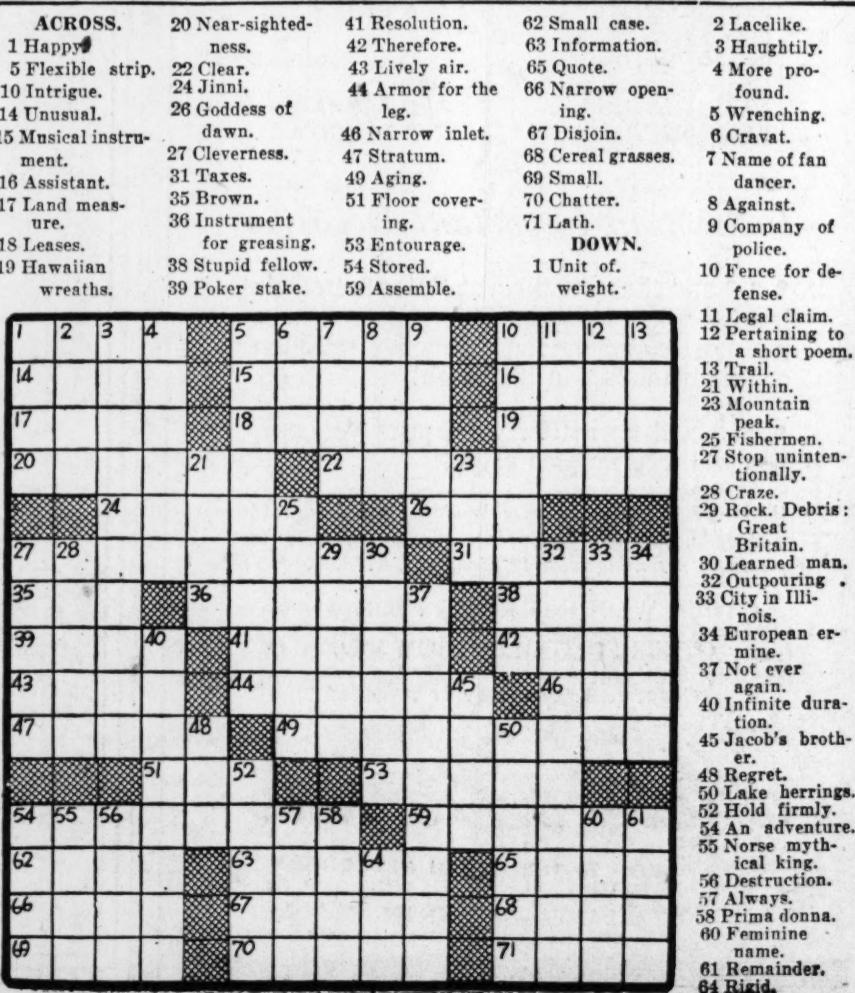

SMITTY—HE DON'T KNOW NOTHING YET

WINNIE WINKLE, THE BREADWINNER—

Constitution's Daily Cross-Word Puzzle

TOO MANY BEAUS

By ALMA SIOUX SCARBERRY

WHAT HAS GONE BEFORE

As found on Dr. Stimp's docket and taken to the Lorien Orphanage in Virginia where Sophia was staying. She said to the physician with a smile, "Hello, Sugar. The physician says that's a good name as any other. As she grows older and other children come, she will have other other name, she runs crying to 'Mother.' Friddle, who says, 'Why, you're my baby, we're not going to have any more babies,' must be too. You're Sugar Friddle. And don't let anybody tell you differently.' Sugar went to the door of the room and said, 'I'm going to the board of directors to see if we can get out into the world. I know Mrs. Dick Locker Le Masters' little boy and Sugar's first friend, turn her house into a home for me.' Friddle, the only mother she has ever known, and Miss Friddle is much younger than Sophia, but she is a very pretty girl, attractively red-headed. Sugar still remembers Johnny DeVille, her own boy, and she is looking forward to leave the orphanage. Told that he must go, Sugar wondered what would become of the boy who believed he would bring a great artful scheme, a lot of money and buy for Sugar, his model, the things her orphan heart desires. Now go on with the story.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June. I wish it could always be June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate in the early June evening. Scores of trees lined the walks that wound through the forest, kept acres. Flowers bloomed everywhere. Mother's porch was rich with honeysuckle and June roses and the pungent odor of a dozen southern flowers sent Sugar's heart to racing happy.

"Oh," she threw back her head, when they had sat down in big easy chairs, "it's so grand here in June time, though, though she is only a young girl. Sophia struggled with an opening to what she had to say. "It's coming change. And we have to take care of the old country estate

Mrs. Peeples To Attend Founding Celebration of Her Alma Mater

By Sally Forth.

MRS. EDWIN A. PEEPLES has the distinction of being the only alumna of National Cathedral school with a daughter to be graduated with the senior class in 1936. Her only daughter, Robyn Peeples, the namesake of her mother, completes her education at Mrs. Peeples' Alma Mater next June, and will make her debut the following autumn. Mrs. Peeples entrains today for Washington, D. C., to attend the house party which begins tomorrow at the school to celebrate the founding of National Cathedral 35 years ago.

Robyn is following in the footsteps of her charming mother in that she will be the youngest girl in her class to receive her diploma next June, as was Mrs. Peeples when she won her sheepskin at the age of 17. As the former Robyn Young, Mrs. Peeples was reared in the national capital and was a charter member of the Washington chapter of the Junior League. Upon establishing her residence in Atlanta, she transferred her membership to the local League, of which she is a past president and honorary president.

She was riding on the front seat of a swanky automobile with an attractive gentleman on each side. In order to make this story simpler, Sally will call these swains "A" and "B." The moon was shining brightly, and the girl was looking quite enchanting in her new evening frock.

As they rode quite peacefully along, "A" tenderly clasped the young girl's left hand in his, and before long, "B" had possession of her right. Neither realized that it was a two-sided affair, and all was well for a while. Then suddenly the lady involved had an irresistible impulse to fix her hair. The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

Mrs. Eckols Heads Bible Study Class.

NEWLY-elected officers of the Bible Study Class of the Second-Pond de Leon Club are: Mrs. John F. Echols, president; Mrs. B. D. Fitzgerald, first vice president; Mrs. L. T. Callaway, second vice president; Mrs. E. Clem Powers, third vice president; Mrs. Frank Hooper, fourth vice president; Mrs. Horace S. Collinsworth, recording secretary; Mrs. Myron H. Farmer, associate recording secretary; Mrs. B. N. Dykes, corresponding secretary; Mrs. W. F. Dykes, treasurer; Mrs. Ralph M. Walker, publicity chairman; Mrs. C. C. Crawford, music chairman; Mrs. L. M. Johnson, pianist; Mrs. Fred Geister, birthday chairman; Mrs. Claude N. Hughes, devotional chairman.

The teachers are: Mrs. John S. Spalding; associates, Mesdames James N. Brown and L. A. Witherspoon. Group leaders include, Mesdames George M. Brown, R. E. Cook, John Capland, Ralph Walker and L. R. Hogan. In the sewing committee are Mesdames C. C. Crawford, Hal Berkley, J. Glenn Dowson, S. Clayton Collins, H. H. McRae. The committee includes Mesdames George M. Brown, W. F. Dykes, S. Spalding, H. S. Collinsworth, John F. Echols.

Contemporary Literature.

The class in contemporary literature meets with Mrs. Emma Garrett Morris, 887 Juniper street, on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. Mrs. Morris will discuss Ellen Glasgow and will read from her new book, "Vein of Iron."

Connecticut Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eakin, of Roxbury, Conn., who are making a leisurely motor trip through the south on their way to Mexico, are the guests of Mrs. Eakin's aunt, Mrs. G. V. Plante, on Highland Way. They have been extensively entertained while in the city.

Mrs. Eakin was Miss Stella Frazier Gann, of Smyrna, Ga., before her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Eakin will leave Monday to spend some time in Santa Fe, New Mexico, and will spend a year visiting points of interest in old Mexico, while Mr. Eakin gathers material for his literary work.

COMING!

Next Week

The Constitution's FALL

GARDEN SCHOOL

Directed by Mrs. Fletcher Pearson Crown,
Atlanta Woman's Club Auditorium,
1150 Peachtree St., 10 to 11:30 A. M.,
Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday & Friday

New - Different - Free Plan Now
To Attend All Classes

Sponsored by

THE ATLANTA
CONSTITUTION

Sigma Delta Club Gives Script Dance On November 1

Sigma Delta Club gives the annual script dance on November 1 at Hurst hall, from 9 to 1 o'clock. Freshmen will be required to wear Dutch costumes to come with a senior and his date. A well-known orchestra will furnish a program of dance music. Officers are: Miss Bebe O'Brien, president; Jean Farnbrough, vice president; Ruthanna Butters, secretary, and Selma Wright, treasurer.

Members are Misses Julia Chapman, June Spalding, Emily Mohley, Sarah Finney, Nancy Schwab, Emily Byrley, Barbara Mallott, Margaret Winship, Caroline McCleskey, Margaret Johnson, Charlotte Smith, Anna Rauschenberg, Mary Barill, Catherine Lane, Helen McDouffie, Marion Bell, Renee Winecoff, Nancy Ingram, Mary Ann Nolan, Lois Merriman and Pauline Stauverman.

Freshmen are Misses Joy O'Brien, Mary Jane Thivent, Evelyn Harrison, Laura Phipps, Franklin Price, Rev. Rock Katherlyn Sticker, Becky Wright, France Alston, Martha Hurt, Mary Lewis, Annie Laurie Kurtz, Emmie Martin, Mamie Hallman.

Prose Group Meeting.

The prose group of the Atlanta Writers' Club meets Sunday at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. John F. Echols, 887 Juniper street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

This year there will be active and inactive membership, the former to take part on a program and the inactive membership was devised to meet the need of those who wish to listen.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

The group is open to all young Atlanta artists who are members of the Atlanta Music Club, and above the age limit of 22. Those interested may communicate with Miss Alice Gray Harrison, president, at Hemlock 6126. Besides Miss Harrison the officers include, Robert Guy, vice president; Sara Croft Hall, second vice president; Lucian Thomas, treasurer.

Appearing on the program Thursday evening is Mrs. Ardell Collier, pianist; Emilie Parmalee, organist; Elizabeth Jackson, violinist; Robert Guy, haritone, and Lucian Thomson, harpist.

The young artists' division of the Atlanta Music Club meets this evening at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Bonita Crowe, advisor of the group on Myrtle street. The group was organized last year for the purpose of enabling artists of Atlanta to study and play together.

After the current meeting, the group will be a manuscript meeting.

Prose manuscript will be read and discussed by the group, and read by the co-chairman, Miss Sylvie Hope, will preside.

Group members and those interested in its activities are invited. An interesting course of yearly study is planned for the year, and meetings will prove helpful and entertaining. Tea will be served by Mrs. Echols.

Miss Judy Beers Is Feted Debutante

Miss Judy Beers, popular debutante daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Beers, will be central figure at a buffet supper at which Mrs. Mary Butt Griffith Dobbs will be hostess Sunday evening at her home on Bonaventure avenue. Invited to meet the honor guest are the members of the Debutante Club and an equal number of young men.

Assisting in entertaining will be Mrs. H. W. Beers, Mrs. F. Stuart Gould, Mrs. D. E. McCord, Mrs. Stockard, Miss Emma Scott and Miss Ford Scott Meador.

Presiding at the coffee table will be Mrs. E. E. Moore, Mrs. Frances Dwyer. Serving punch will be Misses Eugenia Snow, Adele Helmer, Mrs. Lende and Georgia Oliver.

A feature of entertainment will be a delightful musical program, given by Miss Alice King, violinist, Mrs. Duke Durenberg, pianist, Miss Joyce Fretelle, pianist; Beverly Griffith Dobbs, Margie Griffith, Mary Griffith Dobbs and Lucien Thompson, harpist, and William Griffith, mandolin.

Miss Beers was honor guest yesterday at a buffet supper appointed for the occasion at which her aunt, Mrs. Gilbert Beers, entertained at her home on Brighton road.

A color combination of yellow and white featured the effective decorations throughout the home. The lace-covered luncheon table was graced with lovely arrangements of yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. H. W. Beers, mother of the debutante, and her grandmother, Mrs. S. G. Beers, of Taunton, Mass. Invited to meet Miss Beers were the members of the Debutante Club, of which she is treasurer.

Mrs. Wood Honors Matrons at Luncheon.

Mrs. Guy Hinton Wood was hostess at a luncheon at her home on West Shadowlawn avenue yesterday honoring Mrs. Joseph A. Perreault, who has recently come from Pittsburgh, Penn., to make her home in Atlanta, and Mrs. A. D. Hammond, who will leave soon to reside in Birmingham, Ala.

Mrs. Wood was assisted in entertaining by her sister, Mrs. J. Wiley Barrett, recently of Detroit, Mich., and her mother, Mrs. Robert E. Andoe. Covers were placed for Mesdames Joseph A. Perreault, A. D. Hammond, George T. Marchmont, Charles L. Kinsey, John C. DeWitt, Comer V. Weaver, J. Wiley Barrett, R. A. Wood, Robert E. Andoe, Miss Naomi Perreault, and the hostess.

Lakewood O. E. S. Celebrates Birthday.

Lakewood Chapter No. 109, O. E. S., celebrated its sixteenth anniversary on Thursday, honoring past matrons and patrons of the chapter. Present were Mesdames Vassar Edwards, Minnie Kingston, Ella Buchanan, Caroline Whitney, Wilhelmina Brown, Ruby Baswell, Othello Poole, Annie Milam, Willie Crockett, Eula Newcomer, Margaret Crane, Josie Adams, Mamie Sheridan and K. T. Kinney.

Madeline Memorial W. M. S. meets at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. J. McLendon.

Mrs. Hoyt Barber will entertain members of the Sew and So Club at her home on Ormewood avenue.

Auxiliary - Guild of St. John's church in College Park will meet at 3 o'clock.

North Atlanta Chapter No. 36, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple at 10021 Hemphill avenue.

Georgia Chapter No. 127, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock in Oglethorpe Masonic temple.

Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, Maple Grove No. 86, meets at 7:45 o'clock at the Red Men's wigwam.

T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Tabernacle meets at the church at 10 o'clock.

The Smiley Pre-School Association meets today.

The Atlanta Truth Center meets at 8 o'clock at the Open Door, 205 Mortgage Guarantee building.

Cherokee Rose Lodge No. 606, Daughters' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, meets at 2:30 o'clock at the Red Men's wigwam.

W. M. S. of Euclid Avenue Baptist church meets in the church at 10 o'clock.

C. T. U. of East Ponit meets with Mrs. W. H. Curry at 2:30 o'clock at 213 Bryan avenue.

The Needwork Guild of the Kentucky Club meets this morning at the home of Mrs. Joseph M. May, 20 Highland drive, N. E.

Grade representatives and educational class of the Lakewood Heights P.T. A. meet at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Connolly Watts, 116 Claire drive.

High School Carnival.

Avondale Estates High and grammar school give the annual school carnival on Saturday at 2 o'clock, at the Avondale Estates Grammar school. Mrs. John H. Videll, chairman and Mrs. A. C. Ford, co-chairman, are in charge. In addition to the entertainment, vaudeville will be given at 8:15 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Bloodworth-Hinson.

Mrs. Mildred Allen announces the marriage of her niece, Miss Helen Bloodworth, of Jacksonville, Fla., to G. B. Hinson, of Atlanta. The marriage having taken place last Monday in Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. Hinson are residing on Emory place.

For Mr. and Mrs. Phillips.

The Georgia Club, composed of fine insurance companies, advertising and traveling representatives, will give a dinner-dance on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, at Brookhaven Country Club in honor of Most Loyal Grand Gander T. Ray Phillips and Mrs. Phillips, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Those attending are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Atchley, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Banta, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bickerton, Mrs. and Mrs. M. E. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. Dowdell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bruce Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clarke, Mr. A. C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cutler Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gatewood, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mell, Mr. and Mrs. Span Milner, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Price, Mr. H. N. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price, Mr. Joseph S. Rainey, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rountree, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Russ, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Settle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shadley, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Treadaway, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Watson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilcoxson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitmer, Mr. Harry Seal.

HOW YOU CAN HAVE THIS MORNING DRESS
for 96¢

If you don't know how to sew, but would like to learn, we'll start you off by teaching you how to make this attractive print dress in a couple of hours. No cost or obligation whatever. It will cost you only 96¢ (in size 16) to cover the price of the pattern, thread and material. Come in for complete details.

This dress is one of eleven garments in our new "Easy-to-Make" Wardrobe Book. Ask for a copy. It's FREE.

SINGER
SEWING MACHINE CO.

205 Peachtree St.

WOMEN'S MEETINGS

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24.

Magnolia Garden Club Elects Officers

At a recent meeting of the Magnolia Garden Club officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. George L. Pratt; vice-president, Mrs. John L. Harper; recording secretary, Mrs. R. E. Sims Jr.; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Arnold Hepp, and treasurer, Mrs. Walter R. Lamb. The club accepted the invitation to participate in the Southeastern Flower Show at the Atlanta auditorium, November 4 and 5, inclusive.

After the business meeting, the hostess, Mrs. Pratt, served tea. The table was covered with a handsome imported Irish lace cloth, graced by an antique silver bowl holding an exquisite arrangement of flowers from the hostess' gardens, featuring shades of yellow and blue, lighted by tall unshaded white tapers in matching silver candelabra.

Current Events Class meets at 10:30 o'clock at Y. W. C. A. building, 82 Baker street, N. W.

St. Cecilia Study Class will meet at 11 o'clock at 1200 Peachtree street, N. E.

Ladies' Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars, Greater Atlanta Post No. 390, meets at 3 o'clock in Rich's tea room.

Daughters of the King of All Saints church meet at 10 o'clock in the chapel.

Boys' High P.T. A. parent-teacher education group meets at 10:30 o'clock in the study of the First Baptist church.

W. F. Slaton Pre-School Association will hold its mothers' study group meeting at 10 o'clock in the school library.

W. M. U. of the Inman Park Baptist church meets all day at the church, beginning at 10 o'clock.

McDonald Memorial W. M. S. meets at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. E. J. McLendon.

Mrs. Hoyt Barber will entertain members of the Sew and So Club at her home on Ormewood avenue.

Auxiliary - Guild of St. John's church in College Park will meet at 3 o'clock.

North Atlanta Chapter No. 36, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple at 10021 Hemphill avenue.

Georgia Chapter No. 127, O. E. S., meets this evening at 8 o'clock in Oglethorpe Masonic temple.

Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle, Maple Grove No. 86, meets at 7:45 o'clock at the Red Men's wigwam.

T. E. L. Class of the Baptist Tabernacle meets at the church at 10 o'clock.

The Smiley Pre-School Association meets today.

The Atlanta Truth Center meets at 8 o'clock at the Open Door, 205 Mortgage Guarantee building.

Cherokee Rose Lodge No. 606, Daughters' Auxiliary to the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, meets at 2:30 o'clock at the Red Men's wigwam.

W. M. S. of Euclid Avenue Baptist church meets in the church at 10 o'clock.

C. T. U. of East Ponit meets with Mrs. W. H. Curry at 2:30 o'clock at 213 Bryan avenue.

The Needwork Guild of the Kentucky Club meets this morning at the home of Mrs. Joseph M. May, 20 Highland drive, N. E.

Grade representatives and educational class of the Lakewood Heights P.T. A. meet at 10 o'clock with Mrs. Connolly Watts, 116 Claire drive.

High School Carnival.

Avondale Estates High and grammar school give the annual school carnival on Saturday at 2 o'clock, at the Avondale Estates Grammar school. Mrs. John H. Videll, chairman and Mrs. A. C. Ford, co-chairman, are in charge. In addition to the entertainment, vaudeville will be given at 8:15 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Bloodworth-Hinson.

Mrs. Mildred Allen announces the marriage of her niece, Miss Helen Bloodworth, of Jacksonville, Fla., to G. B. Hinson, of Atlanta. The marriage having taken place last Monday in Atlanta. Mr. and Mrs. Hinson are residing on Emory place.

For Mr. and Mrs. Phillips.

The Georgia Club, composed of fine insurance companies, advertising and traveling representatives, will give a dinner-dance on Friday evening at 7 o'clock, at Brookhaven Country Club in honor of Most Loyal Grand Gander T. Ray Phillips and Mrs. Phillips, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Those attending are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Atchley, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Banta, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bickerton, Mrs. and Mrs. M. E. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. S. Bissell, Mr. and Mrs. Dowdell Brown, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. Bruce Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George W. Clegg, Mr. and Mrs. A. Cheney, Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Clarke, Mr. A. C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Cutler Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Sam D. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Eaton, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Gatewood, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Malone, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Mell, Mr. and Mrs. Span Milner, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Morris Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Price, Mr. H. N. Morris, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Price, Mr. Joseph S. Rainey, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rasmussen, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Ransom, Mr. and Mrs. L. Rountree, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rose, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Russ, Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Settle, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Sewell, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Shadley, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Treadaway, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Underwood, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Watson, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wilcoxson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Whitmer, Mr. Harry Seal.

HOW YOU CAN HAVE THIS MORNING DRESS
for 96¢

If you don't know how to sew, but would like to learn, we'll start you off by teaching you how to make this attractive print dress in a couple of hours. No cost or obligation whatever. It will cost you only 96¢ (in size 16) to cover the price of the pattern, thread and material. Come in for complete details.

This dress is one of eleven garments in our new "Easy-to-Make" Wardrobe Book. Ask for a copy. It's FREE.

SINGER
SEWING MACHINE CO.

1024 Peachtree St.

Renders Splendid U. D. C. Service

Portrait Miniatures To Be Exhibited

Bernice P. A. Fernow, well-known artist, will exhibit a collection of her portrait miniatures at Rhodes Memorial Hall on Friday afternoon. The exhibit is sponsored by Mrs. J. O. Wynn and Mrs. Maude Craig Mathews. Mrs. Fernow is the wife of a prominent professor, Clement Fernow, where they are popular residents on the campus of that institution.

She belongs to the American Society of Miniature Painters and several of her works now hang in the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. Her exhibit at the Georgia Progress Exposition was listed among the fair's outstanding displays and brought high praise from artists viewing the exhibit. Those interested in the exhibit here Friday are invited to visit the Rhodes Hall at that time.

Miss Wesley Honored At Party Series.

Miss Mary Ann Wesley, daughter of Mrs. Carl Wesley, who married to O. P. Lynn, Sr., is being feted at a social affair. Miss Janis Richards, entertained at a bridge tea and luncheon last Saturday at her home in Johnson's estate, Mrs. Richards assisted her daughter. The guests included members of the Gamma Delta Beta sorority, of which Miss Wesley was a member when she attended Girls High school.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Brown entertained members of the wedding party at a reception at their home on Peachtree circle Tuesday evening. Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Hightower entertained Miss Wesley and Mr. Lynn at a bridge party at a bridge tea at 8 o'clock on Saturday. On Saturday, November 2, Miss Winnie Wilkins will entertain the bride-elect at a bridge party. Other parties are planned for the popular young couple.

Miss Frances Purvine Weds Mr. Russell.

In a ceremony characterized by dignity and beauty Miss Frances Purvine became the bride of Frank E. Russell at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by H. C. Hale, pastor of West End Church of Christ, in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives.

The church was artistically decorated with ferns which banked the altar and served as a background for white chrysanthemums combined with seven-branched candelabra in which burned white tapers. Pews reserved for the family were marked with bows of white ribbon.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with Mrs. Lynn at the next section of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill, grand chaplain, at Davison's temple. Special guests were Mrs. Mattie Smith, who will serve Mrs. Dillon as grand page at the next session of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill received many gifts.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with Mrs. Lynn at the next section of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill received many gifts.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with Mrs. Lynn at the next section of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill received many gifts.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with Mrs. Lynn at the next section of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill received many gifts.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with Mrs. Lynn at the next section of the grand chapter of O. E. S., Mesdames Bessie Martin and Louie P. Marquardt. Mrs. Dillon and Mrs. Foddrill received many gifts.

Following the ceremony, Mrs. Purvine, who was a maid of honor, was seated with

Miss Snipes Weds Dr. Harling At Impressive Church Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Frances Louise Snipes to Dr. Clyde Howard Harling was solemnized last evening at 8:30 o'clock at the Druid Hills Baptist church before a brilliant assemblage of friends and relatives. Dr. Louis
D. Newton, pastor of the church, officiated. A program of nuptial music was rendered prior to the ceremony by Mrs. John Felder, organist.
Mrs. Luther Byrd, contralto, sang "A Dying Song," and Mrs. Louisa C. Atkinson, soprano, sang "Love."

The church was elegantly deco-red with palms and white chrysanthemums.
In front of the choir rail was a screen of southern smilax, against a white drop of satin cloth. On top of the rail a sunburst of silver metal cloth, indirectly lighted, was placed in the center of the valley. The sunburst was a seven-branch candelabra, brum holding unshaded tapers. There were also seven-branch candelabra at each end of the rail, arising from a mound of white chrysanthemums. On each side of the pulpit were a group of palms, in front of which were placed two seven-branch candelabra, alternating in height with a cluster of three silver wedding bells. Tied to each candelabra in the choir were three separate groups of palms, and in front of each group was a seven-branch candelabra holding unshaded tapers.

The family pews were marked with white satin ribbons. The bridal party stood on a raised platform, and on either side of the steps leading to the altar was a low mound of white chrysanthemums. Ushers were H. W. Stephenson, Teague Jennings, Dr. J. Ross Tucker, Dr. E. L. Banks, T. C. Langford, and Dr. W. C. Byrd. They were followed by the groomsmen, who included Z. A. Snipes Jr., brother of the bride; Dr. David B. Smith, Dr. Norman Poer Jr., F. H. Snipes Jr., of Knoxville, Tenn., cousin of the bride, and Dr. W. Vance Jackson.

The bevy of attractive bridesmaids included Misses Martha Aiken, Charlotte Myers, Kathryn Welling, Betty Shaw, and Mrs. John Garner, the sister of the groom. They wore greenadin red velvet made in a princess effect.

The decidedly different necklines were edged with tiny velvet ruffles of the same color. The very full-skirted silvers were ruffled in the same manner; the skirts featured un-pressed pleats, and the long trains were Renaissance in affluence. They carried large bouquets of pale pink chrysanthemums tied with the same shade of satin ribbon. Miss Dorothy Snipes, of Greenville, S. C., a companion of the bride, was the maid of honor; and Mrs. G. H. Butler Jr., of Chicago, Ill., formerly Miss Helen Russell, of Atlanta, acted as matron of honor. Their dresses were like the ones worn by the bridesmaids, and they carried bouquets similar to those Beautiful Bride.

The beautiful bride was accompanied to the altar by her father, Z. A. Snipes Sr., by whom she was given in marriage. At the altar they were met by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. Sam McCall, of Tuscaloosa, Ala. The bride's wedding gown was of antique satin and had an appliqued Wedding Trip.

The bride and groom left for a motor trip east. The bride's traveling

Grandmother and Grandson

Mrs. William Silver is pictured with her grandson, Carl Silver. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Silver, of Brooklyn, N. Y. With his mother he spent the past month with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Silver, on Elmwood drive. Photograph by Bon Art studio.

W. M. S. A. Party.

W. M. S. A. Auxiliary gives a Halloween costume party at the clubhouse on Mallory street on Sunday.

School of Instruction.

Mrs. Emma Brooks, past state president, presided at the recent school of instruction held by the Mary E. La Roca Grove No. 264, of the Supreme Forest Woodmen Circle. Changes in the circle's ritual were discussed and demonstrated.

Special guests included Mesdames
Amanda Vaughn, Sue Methvin and Flora Scarborough, of Maple Grove
No. 86 in Atlanta; Mesdames Claudine Hyde and Oneta Robertson, of Hapeville; Daisy Dee Club.

Dinner—Dance.

The Capital City Country Club announces a formal dinner-dance to be held on November 2. The Sunday evening concert, which have been held in the hall of the former school of the bride, was the maid of honor; and Mrs. G. H. Butler Jr., of Chicago, Ill., formerly Miss Helen Russell, of Atlanta, acted as matron of honor.
Their dresses were like the ones worn by the bridesmaids, and they carried bouquets similar to those

Bayley-Clark Rites Take Place in N. Y.

Of sincere interest is the announcement made today by Mr. and Mrs.
C. A. D. Bayley of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Catherine Bayley, to William Byrd Clarke, of New York, which took place on Friday at the home of the latter's parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Roland Clark in New York.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter Hebard, and the service was performed in the presence of members of the family and a limited number of friends. Following the ceremony Mr. Clarke and his bride left for their wedding trip to the former's summer home at Nassau
Point, Long Island, N. Y. After
November 1 they will reside at 908
Park avenue, New York.

Erwin—Ralls.

WEST POINT, Ga., Oct. 23.—(AP)
A son of the Rev. George C. Erwin, of Georgia, Francis Erwin, of West Point, Ga., has been made here. The marriage took place at the home of
Mr. and Mrs. Foy Sims at Lanett, Sunday. Mrs. Ralls is the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Erwin, of West Point.

Ralls—Erwin.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Walter Hebard, and the service was performed in the presence of members of the family and a limited number of friends. Following the ceremony Mr. Clarke and his bride
left for their wedding trip to the former's summer home at Nassau
Point, Long Island, N. Y. After
November 1 they will reside at 908
Park avenue, New York.

Mrs. Blanton was a Kentuckian and of this feature of the home, Kentucky, invited to attend. Mrs. A. W. Walden, member of the club, and the originator of this feature of the home, Kentucky, invited to attend.

the Sporting thing to wear!

New Suede Jackets

Nothing could be jaun-tier! Brown, Green and Red suedes. Sizes 14 to 20.

$8.95

Sport Shop
Street Floor

New Plaid Skirts

Nothing could be gayer!
Skirts in assorted
plaids of green, blue, red, and brown. 24 to 30.

$5.95

J. P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

The Flash of METAL will now be seen both day and night!

The gleam of metal has always been important in evening fashions . . . but now metallic fabrics are established also for daytime wear. What can be more appropriate for formal afternoons and informal evenings than a metal frock in street length? Their neutral colors are ideal for both debutante and matron. Besides the regular metal colors there are, too, the shades of wine, green and blue.

Shown above, evening gown in "old gold" metal cloth . .

$19.95

Shown right, a "blue steel" frock in daytime length . . . $35

Center, a smart tailored day length dress in "platinum"
$19.95

Extreme right, a green and silver metal street length frock . . . $19.95

Street Floor

J. P. ALLEN & CO.

The Store All Women Know

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Cowles have returned from New York city.

Misses Marion Bell and Mary Louise
Blanchard leave Friday for Chapel Hill, N. C., to act as sponsors for the Georgia Tech football team at the Tech-North Carolina game on Saturday.

Captain William Hall, U. S. A., and
Mrs. Hall, of Albion Field, Panama Canal Zone, announce the birth of a son. Mrs. Hall is the former Miss Helena Callaway, of Atlanta.

Mrs. Roy Dorsey and Mr. and Mrs.
John Drake, of Wilmington, Del., sailed Wednesday from San Francisco on the President Adams for a world tour.
They sailed October 3 from New York and visited Havana, Panama and Los Angeles en route.

Ben Griffin, of Richmond, Va., recently spent several days in the city.

Mrs. W. D. Marshall leaves at an early date to spend the winter in Florida.

Mrs. Etta Smith and little granddaughter, Cornelia Caldwell, are visiting Mrs. J. J. Reeves in Langdale, Ala., and Mrs. B. W. Brown in La-Grange, Ga.

Mrs. O. A. Sharpless has returned from a recent visit in Macon, Ga.

Mrs. T. D. Body has returned from a recent visit to Mexico.

Mesdames Callie Reeves, J. J.
Reeves and Miss Elsie Reeves, of Langdale, Ala., were the recent guests of Mrs. J. H. McGahee in West End.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Caldwell will spend the week-end in LaGrange.

C. E. DeLoach, of Lanett, Ala., was a recent visitor in the city.

Miss Ann Robertson, of Augusta, will spend the week-end with Miss Alice Gray Harrison.

Mrs. Anne Wimbish, of Hendersonville, N. C., is visiting Mrs. S. B.
Wimbish on Broadtree drive.

Mr. and Mrs. William Green announce the birth of a son, William Green Jr., on October 19 at the Piedmont hospital. Mrs. Green was before her marriage Miss Frances Duke, of Washington, D. C., and Nashville, Tenn.

Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Lipscomb, of Valdosta; Mrs. Julian Miller, of Athens, and Mrs. Alfred E. Weil, of Chicago, Ill., are at The Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. L. J. Smoot, of Jacksonville,
Fla., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis E.
Byrd at their home on Peachtree road.

Miss Eleanor Gray, popular member of the Debutante Club, left Mon-

3-DAY SALE! of such fine fur Scarves as MARTEN and HUDSON SABLE and fur Capes of SILVER FOX and CARACUL

Here are a few of them listed.

2-Skin Stone Marten	$75
2-Skin Blended Hudson Sable	$100
3-Skin Hudson Sable	$125
3-Skin Blended Baum Marten	$135
4-Skin Blended Marten	$175
5-Skin Hudson Sable	$250
Chinese Kidskin Cape	$90
Mole Cape	$90
Russian Caracul Cape	$125
Finest Kolinsky Cape	$150
Hudson Seal Cape	$125
Silver Fox Cape	$500

In this group, you will find only the furs from America's finest makers

J. P. ALLEN & CO.
The Store All Women Know

Injured Stars of Georgia and Alabama Return to Work

ALF ANDERSON,
MAURICE GREEN
STAR IN DRILLS

Bulldogs Impressive in Skirmish; Anderson Runs Wild for Ga.

ATHENS, Ga., Oct. 23.—Rehabilitated after a sojourn forced by injuries, Alf Anderson and Maurice Green, two Bulldog star passers, were setting the pace yesterday in their first skirmish in several weeks.

Anderson accounted for a touchdown on the first play and being put on offense. Later he faced for three others before a half was called to the scrimmage. Green was showing up especially well on defense. Both were passing well against a team of freshmen, several long gains being made through the air.

Georgia has more good backfield men and more reserves generally than Alabama.

Georgia's team is not built around one man. When Riley Smith is out of the Alabama lineup the Alabamans complete an occasional pass and hit the center of the line for a good gain once.

McKnight, Moorehead and Shi were also showing fine form.

MORE FEARFUL.

Coach McRae fears Riley-to-Bryant, passing combination which the Alabama Crimson Tide will boast when it hits Sanford field Saturday afternoon. As Bryant is the most celebrated pass receiver in the team, the Bulldogs are not taking him lightly in the least. Harrold and Johnson are strong. Georgia is hopeful. On the starting lineup of the varsity eleven today were Candler and Maffett; ends; Harman and Shi, tackles; Moorehead and Frank Johnson, guards; McKnight, center; Treadaway, quarterback; Minot and Bond, fullback; and Maurice Green, fullback.

A crowd rivaling even the Tulane turnout here in 1931 is expected to see the Bulldogs and the Tide clash here Saturday. Advance ticket sales are brisk and indications are that more than 25,000 will be on hand for the game, which will be the first one to be played in Athens in the long series between the two schools.

J. C. DELEGATION.

The Atlanta Junior Chamber of Commerce will send over a delegation of at least 100 members and they will be seated together in the huge structure.

The Kiwanis Club in Brevard, N. C., will send a delegation of the Scout troop in that city. The Scouts are treated to one game a year and they selected this game. President Jerry Jerome, of the Kiwanis Club, is in charge of the party.

WOMENS' MEET IN SEMI-FINALS

Semi-final rounds in the annual Piedmont Park women's president's tournament will be played at 9 o'clock this afternoon. In the upper bracket, Mrs. E. A. Brown meets Mrs. John Stewart and Mrs. W. D. Tumlin plays Mrs. Ben Barrow in the lower flight. The finals will be played Friday morning at 9 o'clock.

In the quarter-finals Wednesday, Mrs. Brown defeated Mrs. J. Roe, 5-4. Mrs. Stewart eliminated Mrs. M. Kirkpatrick. In the lower bracket, Mrs. John Warren, 1 up, and Mrs. Barrow beat Miss Lucile Malone, 2-1.

The Wednesday matches were the closest, hardest fought of the week and only one match in the championship flight failed to reach the 15th green.

In the consolation flight, Mrs. Sam Ramsey defeated Mrs. George Griffin Jr., 2-1. Mrs. B. Hanna won from Mrs. Carlyle Fraser, by default and Mrs. M. S. Mentzer defeated Mrs. Henry Hubbard, 4-3.

The consolation pairings for today, Miss Martha Bowen plays Mrs. Ramsey and Mrs. Hanna meets Mrs. Mentzer.

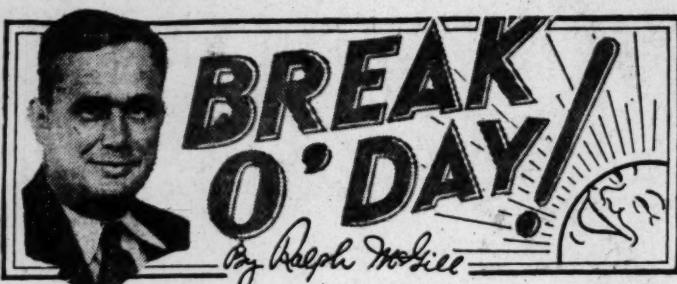

Fordham Announces 'Intersectional' Card

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—An ambitious schedule, including four intersectional opponents, was announced today for the 1936 Fordham football team.

Four games have been booked, five of them with 1935 opponents—Franklin and Marshall, St. Mary's, Pittsburgh, Purdue and New York University.

The newcomers are Southern Methodist, Georgia and Waynesburg. The Tech-Duke game, to be played Nov. 26, was rescheduled to the Rams under a 26-14 defeat. It will be the first time Fordham and Georgia have collided on the gridiron.

The complete schedule, with all games to be played in the Polo Grounds here, follows: October 3, Franklin and Marshall; October 10, Southern Methodist; October 17, Waynesburg; October 24, St. Mary's; October 31, Pittsburgh; November 7, Purdue; November 14, open; November 21, Georgia; November 28, New York University.

TECH DEFENSE FAILS TO HALT PLAYS OF FOE

Jackets Look Well Enough on Offense, But That Is All.

By Jack Troy.

Those Jackets would have sent supporters away from Rose Bowl field in high glee, indeed, had they stuck strictly to offensive football yesterday.

They employed a bit of legerdemain in throwing and catching passes and executing off-tackle plays, end runs and so on. It seemed actually as if they were running "against the wind," so deftly did they handle the opposing freshman.

Oh, they looked very good on offense. In spots.

But time came for them to go on the defensive and then it was that the phantom figures of Don Jackson, Jim Hutchins and Dick Buck, end, dressed in the green of Tech freshmen, made onlookers wonder if maybe the Jackets aren't far and away below the caliber necessary to stop the Tarheels aces Saturday at Chapel Hill.

GOOD FOES.

Tech's secondary defense would have to be very sharp to cope with such performances as Jackson and Buck have turned in for the Tarheels this year.

For instance, Dick Buck has caught six of eight passes thrown to him this year. Against Maryland he took a 50-yard aerial going at top speed and scored.

The eight passes, Jackson has thrown seven of them to Buck. They missed just one time. That sort of an average is hard to beat.

Take the running of Don Jackson. In four games he has averaged 6.2 yards from scrimmage, gaining a net total of 205 yards. Jackson has completed 17 passes in 25 attempts, making him something of a "Dead-Eye Dick."

The Tennessee Volunteers were in pretty fair shape when North Carolina met them. And yet Jackson completed seven out of ten passes.

THAT ISN'T ALL.

And that isn't all. Jackson punts at a 38-yard average and it is also said that his defensive play is magnificent, no less.

Buck also is said to be an excellent defensive player. However, Andy Beresh, the other end, is the better blocker. He is a savage tackler, too.

They say in North Carolina that the 18-year-old Hutchins will tear the Jacket line to shreds. He has averaged better than four yards per carry and has completed the only two passes he has thrown. He is, they say, a real tackler and a smashing blocker.

He came to North Carolina as a tenacious player, but, you can lay to what he has "love" for opposing lines.

The showing of the Jackets on offense play alone was somewhat gratifying, but one continued to wonder what would happen when suddenly the green-shirted freshmen were replaced by the burly Tarheels in the flesh.

And then the freshmen took over the offensive and the Jacket varsity went on the defensive. And the gloom was the thickness of pea soup, no less.

Jimmy Moore ran with the varsity and passed well. Harry Appleby did some fine plunging. Dutch Konemann was good on off-tackle sprints. And Jim Morgan was a standout at end. At times big Jordan made an exceptional play.

DISORGANIZED. But the freshmen were not working. They were disorganized. And so there was little to tell about the Jacket strength. Billy Street plunged like a demon all afternoon. But the opposition was uncertain. They did seem to be a bit more in line and the backfield showed a trace of the old pepper. But there was something lacking. And it is to be hoped that it is regained before Saturday.

Coach W. A. Alexander plans, of course, to start the same seven sophomore, the two juniors and the two seniors in the first half, and then about Duke and played most of the game.

But there is a feeling the shrewd Jacket coach will employ some substitutes this weekend. He will carry 32 players on the trip.

LEAVE TONIGHT.

The squad leaves at 7:30 o'clock tonight from the Terminal station. The arrival at Durham, where they will spend the night, is scheduled for 8:30 a. m.

The team will, of course, go over to Chapel Hill in buses Friday afternoon and hold a final light workout.

It is difficult to do that after visiting both coaches and teams within the space of 24 hours. Both head coaches are jittery. Friday the ground at Tuscaloosa and at Athens should be quivering like a rhumba dancer. These coaches are shaking.

"Tell Harry Mehre when you see him to call off the dogs after the first quarter," said Frank Thomas when I left Tuscaloosa yesterday. "It looks like a sad homecoming for me."

Harry Mehre's answer was to order a half-hour's extra work on pass defense.

Interest is mounting everywhere in the state. They will be here Saturday. The boys from the red clay hills and the farms and the cities are going to be here for this one.

INTEREST MOUNTS.

Now and then, after these two visits, I have to halt and reassure myself that the world will go on, no matter who drops this football game.

It is difficult to do that after visiting both coaches and teams within the space of 24 hours. Both head coaches are jittery. Friday the ground at Tuscaloosa and at Athens should be quivering like a rhumba dancer. These coaches are shaking.

"Well, see me Saturday along in the cool of the evening. I'll know all the answers then."

One thing is sure—Georgia has the most incentive to win. You may play that for what it's worth.

And Georgia, in practice today, showed more zing than did Alabama yesterday.

But there is no favorite.

INTEREST MOUNTS.

Now and then, after these two visits, I have to halt and reassure myself that the world will go on, no matter who drops this football game.

It is difficult to do that after visiting both coaches and teams within the space of 24 hours. Both head coaches are jittery. Friday the ground at Tuscaloosa and at Athens should be quivering like a rhumba dancer. These coaches are shaking.

"Tell Harry Mehre when you see him to call off the dogs after the first quarter," said Frank Thomas when I left Tuscaloosa yesterday. "It looks like a sad homecoming for me."

Harry Mehre's answer was to order a half-hour's extra work on pass defense.

Interest is mounting everywhere in the state. They will be here Saturday. The boys from the red clay hills and the farms and the cities are going to be here for this one.

Tide Fullback Comes Into His Own

Clarence Rhodanz, fullback, has been plugging away for a good long time with the Alabama Red Elephants, but it has not been until this year that he has really come into his own. Rhodanz will face the Georgia Bulldogs Saturday at Athens.

They say he might rip the Red and Black forward wall to shreds. But that remains to be seen. The general belief is that Georgia will rule a slight favorite.

DAN O'MAHONEY TO APPEAR HERE

He Hits Nothing at All So Hard His Arm Breaks

The Story Is About Mr. Herman Stegeman and a Halloween Party at Athens.

By Ralph McGill.

Atlanta wrestling fans will have their second opportunity to see Dan O'Mahoney, the 125-pound weight wrestling champion, in action here when the little-limbed Irish star meets Rough Richard Daviscourt Wednesday night at the city auditorium.

During the summer O'Mahoney appeared here and defeated Pete Sauer in the greatest exhibition of wrestling ever witnessed by Atlanta fans.

O'Mahoney won down Sauer and then employed his famed Irish whip. The result was that Sauer did not return after the first fall, which was the thickness of pea soup, no less.

Jimmy Moore ran with the varsity and passed well. Harry Appleby did some fine plunging. Dutch Konemann was good on off-tackle sprints. And Jim Morgan was a standout at end. At times big Jordan made an exceptional play.

DISORGANIZED. But the freshmen were not working. They were disorganized. And so there was little to tell about the Jacket strength. Billy Street plunged like a demon all afternoon. But the opposition was uncertain. They did seem to be a bit more in line and the backfield showed a trace of the old pepper. But there was something lacking. And it is to be hoped that it is regained before Saturday.

Coach W. A. Alexander plans, of course, to start the same seven sophomore, the two juniors and the two seniors in the first half, and then about Duke and played most of the game.

But there is a feeling the shrewd Jacket coach will employ some substitutes this weekend. He will carry 32 players on the trip.

LEAVE TONIGHT.

The squad leaves at 7:30 o'clock tonight from the Terminal station. The arrival at Durham, where they will spend the night, is scheduled for 8:30 a. m.

The team will, of course, go over to Chapel Hill in buses Friday afternoon and hold a final light workout.

It is so as conditioning is concerned, the Jackets are well advanced. And there is only one player out. John Wilcox, right guard, will not be ready for the North Carolina game. Captain Lefty Embanks, right tackle, is recovered from his injury and ready to play. But he won't start.

Tarheels Puzzled

By Jackets' Style.

CHAPEL HILL, N. C., Oct. 23.—(P)—North Carolina's Tarheels were given a lesson in football today—that is, the way Georgia Tech plays it. And the Tarheels went away thinking they had played basketball instead of football. The forward passes and single, double and triple laterals proved bewildering to the Tarheels as they prepared for the game Saturday with Tech as a homecoming day feature here.

Coach Petter, who scouted the Tech-Duke game, had his fourth team "All-American" in the fall. Now Jack plays against first the first team and then the second team. The "Jackets" handled the pizzicks with the ease of a basketball, enabling the laterals to prove effective.

Tom Burnette, sophomore back, was back in the team and took on light limbering-up work. He was injured in practice several days after the Tennessee game. John Trimpey also took only easy work, leaving Sophomore Henry Bartos to fill in at regular left tackle. Dick Buck took things easy. Both Buck and Trimpey will more than likely be ready for Tech.

ALABAMA PITTS.

OPELKA, Ala., Oct. 23.—(P)—Edwin J. Pitts, Alabama's Pitts, today for a visit with friends and relatives before returning to Ossining, N. Y., to confer on future plans with Warren Lewis E. Lawes, of Sing Sing prison, whom he described as a "stand-pat friend." Pitts said he had not yet signed a baseball contract for next year and would not sign a contract of any kind until he had conferred with the warden.

MADE THIS NO-RISK TEST

These cigarettes have to please you, or you pay nothing!

Attention, please. Here is an offer to smokers that is now standing over to every man in this state:

THE PLAN: Roll your self 30 swell cigarettes from Prince Albert. If you don't find them the finest, tastiest roll-your-own cigarettes you ever smoked, return the tin with the rest of the tobacco in it, and we will refund full purchase price plus postage. (Signed) R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Could anything be fairer than that? We know that quality tells its own story. Men try P. A. They like it. And thank us for bringing them a better roll-your-own smoke than they knew before.

Charles Jacobs, who rolls a nice firm cigarette in 14 seconds, using Prince Albert.

They tell me I'm pretty handy at rollin' cigarettes," says Charles Jacobs. "Why, it's easy. That 'crimp cut' tobacco rolls quick as a wink...lays right...stays right. Prince Albert gives me around 70 cigarettes out of every tin!" Begin today to roll P. A. They must try at your next party.

PRINCE ALBERT

THE EASY-TO-ROLL JOY SMOKE

70¢

fine roll-your-own cigarettes in every 2-ounce tin of PRINCE ALBERT.

CRIMP CUT TOBACCO

100% BURNING PAPER SOURCE

CIGARETTE TORALOID TIP

© 1935 R. J. REYNOLDS TOBACCO CO.

BEAR' BRYANT IN LIGHT WORK; BOYS LOOK GOOD

Boys' High Battles Riverside Tonight at Ponce de Leon Park

ONLY UNBEATEN PREP MACHINES IN STATE CLASH

Purples Slight Favorites. Georgia Crown Hangs in Balance.

By Roy White.

Boys' High and Riverside Military Academy, the only unbeaten and unbroken prep teams in the state, will battle for the Georgia Interscholastic Athletic Association championship at 8 o'clock tonight at Ponce de Leon park. It will be the feature prep game of the week and should be one of the best of the year.

Boys' High and Riverside have two more G. I. A. A. games after tonight's affair, but a victory tonight will practically decide the title, as the other games will be of minor importance. Tonight's winner cannot lose the championship unless the last two games are lost.

Both teams finished their hard scrimmaging Tuesday afternoon and tapered off with a long punting, passing and signal drill Wednesday afternoon.

SIX WINS.

Boys' High, due to scoring 200 points in six wins, against Riverside's five straight victories, will rule a slight favorite, but favorites don't seem to go so good when two bitter prep rivals battle.

Riverside suffered the loss of Driver, Garskeck, and Captain Lightbown in the Lanier game last Friday night. They are not listed in the starting lineup tonight, but like all other "cripples" may be wheeled onto the field in case of necessity. You never can tell about a crippled football player.

But outside of these two injuries, Riverside will have its strongest lineup, of Dobbs and Little, ends; Komissar and Rainey, tackles; Waugh and Flowers, guards; Burns, center, and David, Brantly, Armstrong and Van Thompson in the backfield. It is the same lineup with the two exceptions which has started the last three games.

Little, right end for Riverside, is one of the outstanding high school ends. He has played well in every game and appears to have no weakness. He carries the ball on some of the double reverses and end-around plays and is a great pass receiver.

THOMPSON GOOD.

Van Thompson is probably the outstanding fullback in prep circles this year. He runs with the ball, passes, backs up the line and does a majority of the Riverside punting. His quick kicks have sent out many a far back in their territory. Brantly and Armstrong are plenty fast and are excellent blockers.

Against a much heavier team, Boys' High will send one of its best balanced clubs in recent years. The Purples have been outweighed in every game this year, but with some fast backs and a great forward passing team, they have come through undefeated.

The winner of tonight's game will be assured of the Dartmouth alumni trophy offered in 1920 for the team winning the G. I. A. A. three times.

Boys' High has two legs on the trophy, along with Tech High, Riverside, G. I. A. C. (who dropped out of the G. I. A. A. several years ago) Madison Academy and Lanier High.

It should be a great game and advance tickets can be purchased at Spalding's on North Broad street.

PROBABLE LINEUPS.

RIVERSIDE Pos. Boys' HIGH
Dobbs L. E. Roberts
Komissar L. G. Mount
Waugh C. G. Beard
Flowers R. G. Richards
Rainey R. E. Ransom
Little Q. B. Mims
David Q. B. Massengale
Brantly L. H. Ehrlund
Armstrong F. H. Ehrlund
Van Thompson F. B. Gove

Tech High, Monroe Will Play Friday.

Tonight's scrap is not the only big prep game of the week, for Tech High and Monroe Aggies, bitter rivals, will play at 8 o'clock Friday night at Ponce de Leon park.

And that should be another great game with Monroe having a slight advantage. Red Barron's Aggies held the Smithies to a tie score last year and are particularly anxious to win Friday's game.

Conrad Albert, losing four and winning two games, has changed his offense for Monroe in the hopes of starting the Smithies on another winning streak.

Boys' High Triple-Threat Back

Billy Mims, Boys' High quarterback, who will be one of the main springs in the Purple backfield against Riverside tonight at Ponce de Leon park. Mims does a majority of the passing and punting for the Purples. He also is an excellent blocker and has gained much ground on wide sweeping end runs. Photo by Cornett.

Grimm's World Series Maneuvering Is Upheld

Jo Jo White Says Cub Pilot's Judgment in Not Using Play Was Correct.

By Jack Troy.

This is not an attempt to spoil the winter for the hot stove league devotees. And there is no intent meant to take away any of the supporters of the Chicago Cubs might get in "riding" Manager Charley Grimm all winter for not putting on the squeeze play in the eighth inning of the final game of the World Series, with the score tied and a Cub on third with none out.

But take the word of Jo Jo White, star outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, world champions, the day of the squeeze play in the major leagues is passed.

Atlanta fans, listening to the account of the final game via radio and reading about it in their favorite newspaper, were prone to take Grimm roundly to task for not "squeezing in" Shirley Hack, who led off the Cub's half of the eighth with a rousing triple.

Hack was left stranded, of course, when Tommy Bridges fanned Jurges, retired French on a bounder to the box, and retired Galan on a short fly to Goose Goslin.

Thus, according to Jo Jo White, the Tigris man, was good management, according to the major league standard.

"SQUEEZE" IS GONE. That, however, says the day of the squeeze is no more. Like the dodo bird, the play is extinct. Or, at least, it is fast getting that way.

"I can safely say I didn't see the squeeze play tried one time all last season," White said. "Not more than four major league clubs have a squeeze play, and only four or five places in the country of these clubs know the sign for it."

The squeeze play is too hazardous, when Tommy Bridges fanned Jurges, retired French on a bounder to the box, and retired Galan on a short fly to Goose Goslin.

That, according to Jo Jo White, the Tigris man, was good management, according to the major league standard.

ANOTHER ANGLE. The critics, too, give the batter nothing "fat" when the stage is set for such a play. So the major league idea is to hit straight away and take a chance on getting the runner in from third. Usually, a long fly does the work. And, in the case of the G. I. A. A., several years ago,

Madison Academy and Lanier High.

It should be a great game and advance tickets can be purchased at Spalding's on North Broad street.

GREEKS COLLIDE IN MAT FEATURE

George Romanoff and John Ellis, Greek rivals, will headline a wrestling card in the city auditorium tonight, starting at 8:15 o'clock. It will be the first set of regular weekly matches during the fall and winter months, under the direction of Promoter Roby and Bettis.

Romanoff the whiskered wrestler, is one of the most popular matmen to appear here. He has studied the sport from all angles and can rough it with the best of them. His opponent, John Ellis, is rough, scientific grappler. The fans will see action when this pair meet.

Tarzan Jordan and Al Olson meet in the one-hour semi-final.

Olson was recently arrested by city policemen for extreme roughing and promises to make the match with Jordan interesting.

Joe Wolf, Chicago, returns here to meet John Mauldin in the 30-minute opener.

Tickets are on sale at the Five Points Soda Company, or may be secured by calling Belmont 1079-7.

Vanderbilt Flankman Receives a Package

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 23.—(P) Willie Gandy, red-headed end and captain of the Vanderbilt Commodores, today received a package from "Woody and Cecil." Inclosed was a note which said:

"Please put some of this on your fingers before the L. S. U. Game."

You're right, it was a tube of glue.

Woody and Cecil, Gandy explained, were busy in his charge at a camp the past summer.

"They must have read about that fumbled pass of mine in the Fordham game," Gandy said.

The Clemson Cubs, 7 to 2, in the Biddle's first football victory over Clemson since 1931.

INELIGIBILITY, INJURIES HURT MAJOR ELEVENS

Five Captains of "Big Teams" Have Been Lost So Far.

By Herbert W. Barker.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P) This football season, already notable for the awesome headache it has given the experts, likewise threatens to set a new high for removing star athletes from the scene of gridiron conflict via the ineligibility of injury, rule or otherwise.

By a strange coincidence these twin coaching nightmares have taken no fewer than five captains of top-ranking teams—Glenn Seidel, Minnesota, quarterback; Bob Haley, Harvard, quarterback; Ed Skoronski, of Purdue; Jim Russell, of Temple, and Joe O'Brien, of Boston College. Long before the season opened Notre Dame lost in 1933 captain through the death of its blood stream infection of Joe Sullivan.

Haley fell afoul of Harvard's rigid ineligibility standards and was declared athletically null and void for violation of the rule forbidding acceptance of "outside assistance." Skoronski, one of the Big Ten's finest coaches, was declared ineligible after it was shown he played a part of one game with Georgetown University before transferring to the Indiana school.

HURT IN CRASH.

O'Brien, whose Boston College Eagles sprang its biggest upset in the season in whipping Michigan State last week, was so badly injured in an automobile accident during the summer that he did not even participate in the game for two more weeks as a result of the heating he took in the Carnegie Tech game last Saturday.

He is suffering from badly strained muscles of the spinal column.

Seidel, clever field general of Minnesota's powerful Gophers, suffered a fractured collar bone in the Tulane game and probably will play no more college football.

Seidel's injury, incidentally, calls attention to the tremendous losses the Gophers have suffered since the rule requiring the captain on an undefeated season last year. Big Ten eligibility rules cost Bernie Bierman the services of Stan Kostka, Bill Bevan, George Svendsen and Art Clarkson. Jules Alfonse, another ace of the 1934 Minnesota army, recently was bowled out of action by scholastic deficiencies. Even without these five stars the Gophers have galloped right along, but Bierman now will be hard pressed to find an adequate substitute for Seidel.

DIXIE LOSSES.

In the south, John Sniscak, North Carolina guard, was dismissed from school after it had been discovered he previously had played for Catholic University. William Andorka and Albert Farrell were declared ineligible at the University of Georgia. Andorka previously had played at Fordham and Farrell at West Liberty (W. Va.) Teachers' College.

Syracuse lost the services of Ed Mammoser, consistent ground gainer, for the season when Red suffered a broken leg in the Ohio Wesleyan game last week. His injury has removed John Michael, crack tackle, from Notre Dame's varsity and he is crushed.

Two of the east's greatest backs, Al Barabas, of Columbia, and Dave Smukler, of Temple, have been badly handicapped by leg injuries. Barabas, in fact, may be forced to yield his first-team berth when Columbia meets Michigan Saturday.

Two of the east's greatest backs, Al Barabas, of Columbia, and Dave Smukler, of Temple, have been badly handicapped by leg injuries. Barabas, in fact, may be forced to yield his first-team berth when Columbia meets Michigan Saturday.

Russell, the rough Jack Russell, of Baltimore, Friday night at Avondale.

The Russell-Mauldin skirmish will be a winner-take-all, no-time-limit, three falls match.

In the semi-windup match, a one-hour affair, Sweetser, son of Oklahoma, will make his debut here against Young London, sensational all-wrestler of Kirkwood. The card will start at 8 o'clock, with five colored fighters battling in a battle royal.

Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know what team they were going to play until they hit Princeton or Harvard. I suggested, "Most of the others were set-ups."

"That was true then," the coach said, "but imagine Rice and Louisiana, two of our best teams, getting ready for a game or September 28. Or an old-time Yale team being called the remainder of the campaign.

"Rafferty, one of Yale's star ends, told me this day that they didn't know

Merchandise

Merchandise

Salaries Bought 41
Sewing machines, drop head, $5 up.
181 Mitchell, N. W. 1310.
BEDS, mattresses, springs, chairs, etc. All half, 127 Luckie St., N. W.
SEWING machine, console electric, attachments. Will rent for $4 month. L.E. 8173-R
GREEN lathe, 15 in. per. 100, A. G. Wood,
Buckhead Ave., N. W. 1200.
FOR SALE—5600 Persian Kashan rug at a bargain. Apply 909 Oakdale Road, N. E.
Typewriters & Office Equipment 54

ATTENTION, STUDENTS
WE FURNISH you typewriters on small monthly rentals. Rent $10 per month, rates for school or home. All makes standard or portable. See the No. 8 noiseless, standard key board.

American Writing Machine Co.
67 Forsyth, N. W. WA. 2860
See the New Portable
ALLEN WALES
Subtracting or Adding Machine
70 Spring, N. W. (Glenwood) MA. 1225
TYPEWRITER BARGAINS.
ALL makes standard and portable. Special rental rates. We buy, sell, repair.
QUICK SERVICE TYPEWRITER CO.
16 Peachtree Arcade, N. W. WA. 1615.
REBUILT Underwood typewriter, in perfect condition, cheap. CH. 1047.

Household Goods 59
WALNUT bed suite, antique sofa, 11.6
x 15 rug, Victor radio, occasional chairs, gas range, beds, Chesterfield chippordore, etc. 134 Houston St., N. E.
CATHCART ALLIED STORAGE CO.,
134 Houston St., N. E.
HOUSE full furniture, new three months ago. Leaving Atlanta. Must sell for less than cost. Ask for personal
C. E. Sutton Jr., 1049 Piedmont Ave., Apt. 8.
STEWART-WARNER 6 cubic foot refrigerator, used 2 months, leaving city. Reasonable terms. VE. 1883.
BEDS, springs, dressers, kitchen cabinet, 3 tables, good cond., real. GA. 1620.

Diamonds 59-B
UNDEBEMED, diamonds, all sizes, at reasonable prices. Price by the carat. Corp. 14
Auburn Ave., N. W. WA. 8089.

Wanted To Buy 66
CASH paid for used clothing, shoes. Bring to store and get 25% better price. MA. 7957.
L. B. Adams & Co., 256 Marietta
St., 353 Edgewood Rd.
CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Beauty Aids

OIL CROQUIGNOLE WAVES $2.50
Complete
NO EXTRA CHARGE
RYCKELEY'S
691 Whitehall JA. 7037

OIL CROQUIGNOLE
$3.00
Soft, natural looking waves with perfect ringlet ends.

Expert Operators Only Are at Your Service
Mary Hunt Mildred McLean Inez Floyd
Ruth Giles Gene Kilgore and Mr. Rich

With His Advice On Perfect Permanent Waves and Beauty Service.

Examination Free

Artistic Wave Shop
101 Edgewood Avenue.
WA. 4556

Merchandise

Merchandise

Used Office Furniture and Store Fixture CLEARANCE SALE
To make needed room we are closing out odds and ends of used office furniture at or below our actual cost. Everything listed here is in serviceable condition:
25-Side Chairs $5.00 to $1.50
15-Tables—all sizes and conditions $5.00 to $3.00
4-Oak Typewriter Chairs $2.50 ea.
2-Embroidered Swivel Chairs $2.00 and $3.00
1-Cushion Counter (extra good) $7.50
1-Light Oak Storage Cabinet, 72 in. high $12.50
5-Glass Showcases $12.50
12-Single Pedestal Oak Desks $5.00 to $10.00
1-Oak Typewriter Desk $10.00
Second-hand Box Files $10.00 ea.
Second-hand 5X8 Card Files $10.00 ea.
1-Steel Letter Box $25.00
12-Steel Letter Box, 12 in. high $65.00
3-Steel Letter Box, 12 in. high $25.00
3-Batteries, 4 Steel Lockers Each $2.50 ea.
2-24x60 End Tables $10.00 ea.
1-Counter 30x72, with storage compartment $12.50
4-Bookkeeper's Desks $7.50 to $12.50
1-Oak Revolving Bookcase—like new $17.50
2-Large Map or Blueprint Cabinets $10.00 ea.
2-3-Drawer Wood File, extra good $5.00 ea.
1-2-Drawer Wood File, refinished $7.50 ea.
1-Steel 1-Drawer File, cost $17.50 new $5.00 ea.
7-5-Drawer Wood Invoice File $5.00 to $10.00
3-4-Drawer Wood Letter Files $10.00 ea.
1-Credit Information Reference File, cost $15.00 new. $4.50 each Many other odds and ends for your office or store at "give-away" prices.
All Prices Cash—City Delivery
On Purchases of $5.00

HORNE DESK AND FIXTURE CO.
47-49 PRYOR ST., N. E.
WA. 1463

Financial

Financial

COMMUNITY SAVINGS & LOAN COMPANY
Plans To Suit You
Terms To Suit You
Easy Monthly Payments

Rooms and Board

WANTED 100 USED PIANOS
Wanted piano parts. Call MA. 2725 from 8:30 a. m. to 9:30 p. m. evenings.
MA. 5880.

WILL buy any office or store fixtures for cash. Atlanta Fixtures & Sales, 106 Pryor
St., S. W. WA. 1472.

GOLD WS PAY highest cash prices
J. W. Boone, 117 Peachtree Arcade.

Cash for used furniture and sewing machines. RA. 2826.

SEWING machines, prefer Singers. Sewing Machine Shop, 167 Whitehall, WA. 7019.

SPOT FOR USED FURNITURE
152 WHITEHALL, MA. 8043.

Cash for furniture and sewing machines. RA. 2826.

For our gold. The Price is Right.
106 Pryor St., S. W. WA. 1472.

Cash for gold. The Price is Right.
106 Pryor St., S. W. WA. 1472.

Highest cash prices paid for good used furniture. Hurf. Furn. Co., MA. 4803.

WILL PAY FOR GOOD USED FURNI-TURE. WATKINS, MA. 4803.

WANTED—RADIO MULTI-TESTER. AD-DRESS S-110, CONSTITUTION.

Cash for furniture. 206 Georgia Ave.
S. E. JA. 8383.

Rooms With Board 67

WANTED 100 USED PIANOS

PETRELS WORK FOR ERSKINE TILT

Oglethorpe's Petrels went through the longest workout of the year Wednesday afternoon in completing the rough work for homecoming day Saturday afternoon at Hermance Field when Erskine will be played.

Coach Patrick worked the team until dark and seemed well pleased with the results.

The crippled list has not diminished, but the Petrels' availability is Captain McNamara and Hank Freeman may be able to play at least a part of the game. Byers' shoulder injury is slowly improving, but not enough for him to play Saturday.

Oglethorpe will start the game with two regular ends missing.

Oglethorpe is looking forward to a victory Saturday after three straight losses.

Clemson Plays

South Carolina

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 22.—(P)—Clemson's powerful Tigers and a determined University of South Carolina Gamecock outfit were primed tonight to clash at noon tomorrow in their thirty-third annual State Fair gridiron classic here.

The Tigers arrived late this afternoon and were reported at full strength with Eddie Hinman, Streck Lawton, backs, and Bill Croxton, guard, available after absence due to injuries. Coach Jess Neely ordered the squad to bed early in the evening.

Curry Farnam, the only Gamecock whose availability was doubtful, has returned to the squad during the week, bringing the Gamecock crew to its

WHAT! NO DRINKS?

COLUMBIA, Mo., Oct. 23.—(P)—The University of Missouri wants its football followers to be drunk with victory—but nothing else. President Frederick W. Middlebush announced today that persons under the influence of liquor will not be admitted to the stadium and those drinking openly at games will be ejected.

Automotive

Cleaning 96A

KOTOFOM—Master Cleaners 50C Cleans 9x12 rugs or 8-pc. living room suite. For demonstration MA. 8478, 320 Sinclair, Z. E. Jay, Distributor.

HIGHEST CASH PAID

For clean Fords, Chevrolets, Plymouths, and other light cars.

JOHN S. FLORENCE MOTOR CO., 200 Whitehall St., N. W. MA. 8202-8203

GET MONEY on any model automobile. ED BRYANT

90 Auburn Ave., N. W. MA. 1244

CASH FOR USED CARS, Campbell, 265 Spring St., N. W., WA. 4654.

BEST cash price paid for light used cars. Ecco's Garage, Inc., DE. 2058.

WILL BUY light car from private owner. Pay cash. Raymond 7418.

Auburn Tigers Pass Through

Coach Jack Meagher's Auburn football squad passed through Atlanta at 11:30 o'clock last night en route to Durham, N. C., for their interconference clash with Duke's Blue Devils Friday afternoon.

The Tigers surprised the southland with their strength last week by upsetting Kentucky 23 to 0. Most observers concede an even chance to beat Duke.

Zipp Neyman, sports editor of the Birmingham News, met the Auburn team here last night and will return to Athens Friday night to cover the Georgia-Alabama battle Saturday.

Princeton, Army Renew Relations

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—Former announcement of the resumption of football relations between Princeton and Army was rejected shortly.

It was learned today that simultaneous confirmation of published reports will be forthcoming from the athletic offices at Princeton and West Point, no later than tomorrow.

According to the New York Sun, arrangements have been completed for the Tigers and Cadets to meet in 1938, 1940 and 1942. The Sun understood that Princeton will alternate with Yale on the West Point schedule, with the Eli's playing Army in odd-numbered years.

Princeton and Army last met on the gridiron in 1908.

Yale and Princeton, it is understood, will play the Navy on the same basis as the Army.

The Army-Harvard game is expected to continue as an annual fixture.

65,000 TO SEE YALE, ARMY TILT

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Although the football team has been here since 1929, Duke Pond's white-jerseyed Eli will trot into the New Haven bowl Saturday favored to trounce the golden-helmeted Cadets in the biggest betting game of the season.

In announcing 7-5 odds favoring Yale tonight, Ryan & Company, Wall Street's famous sports ticket sellers, said the game alone would exceed $75,000 and that more than $1,000,000 will be wagered in the New York area. No other grid encounter of 1935 has approached this.

This major classic of the week-end should attract more than 65,000 fans. The Yale Athletic Association reports 10,000 more tickets sold. The crowd should be as swanky as it is large, with names of grandstand and tier-backers reading like a who's who of eastern big-timers.

Both teams are unbeaten, because they came through okay in two stiff contests against Pennsylvania and Navy, whereas the future general has staked out against a much more difficult opponent. Moreover, Army's efficiency most likely will be impaired by injuries, and the experts question the ability of the Cadets' backfield. The West Point ball toters do not compare favorably with Jack Buckler and Company of last season. However, Army does have an excellent line—when at full strength.

Army will take the field without the services of four important regulars in the starting lineup: Quarterback King, Fullback Goldenberg, Center Clifford and Preston, an end. Eric J. Paxton, it was announced yesterday.

Children of the Andrew-Frances Goodwin family will be entertained at a winter roast at 3 o'clock this afternoon, by Colonel and Mrs. Frederick J. Paxton, it was announced yesterday.

George Frederic Kirsten, 16, son of Major and Mrs. Kirsten of 773 Parkway drive, S. E., has been accepted as a student of the honor school in the College of arts and sciences at Rutgers University, it was learned yesterday. He is a sophomore and majors in languages and literature. He graduated from Boys' High school in 1934.

Old Age Pension Club, Townsend

Street, will meet in Taff Hall, at the city auditorium, at 3 o'clock this afternoon, it was announced yesterday.

Dewey Merrett was awarded $1,000 damages against A. W. Short yesterday in Judge E. D. Thomas' division of state supreme court. Merrett contendes he was injured during his engagement. In addition, Cadet Hippis, first substitute for Preston at end, will be unable to start, although he may get into the game for a few minutes.

Coach Pond, of the Eli's, expects to bring in the same eleven men who downed the Owls. Although none of the Yale's suffered hand-to-hand injuries against the Midshipmen, the skin of the Corp of Cadets against Pennsylvania and Navy pared so much weight off the Eli players that Pond fears they are on the brink of staleness. He is giving his men plenty of rest this week.

In this thirty-fifth meeting between the two schools, Yale will try to register its nineteenth victory over the Cadets, who have won eight times.

Here are the records of the two teams for 1935:

Yale 34; New Hampshire 0.

Yale 31; Pennsylvania 20.

Total: Yale 72; opponents 26.

Army 14; William and Mary 0.

Army 54; Gettysburg 0.

Army 13; Harvard 0.

Total: Army 81; opponents 0.

Both teams completed their hardest work of the week Wednesday with long scrimmages, in preparation for Saturday's game.

Despite the All-American quarterback at Morris Brown, was unable to play last week, and it is doubtful if he will be in the game Saturday afternoon. He has not been out for practice this week. Cooper, a hard-charging back, is being groomed for Smith's place.

A special section of the grandstand will be reserved for white persons.

Negro Teams End Hardest Practice

Morris Brown and Morehouse, two outstanding colored football teams and bitter city rivals, will play at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at Ponson de Leon park. It should be one of the best colored football games of the year.

Both teams completed their hardest work of the week Wednesday with long scrimmages, in preparation for Saturday's game.

Despite the All-American quarterback at Morris Brown, was unable to play last week, and it is doubtful if he will be in the game Saturday afternoon. He has not been out for practice this week. Cooper, a hard-charging back, is being groomed for Smith's place.

A special section of the grandstand will be reserved for white persons.

Quigley Called 'Out'; Car Is Burglarized

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 23.—(P)—E. C. Quigley, veteran National league umpire, called himself "out" today on $800 worth of clothing and luggage.

Quigley, who always brings his prize picks from his St. Mary's, Kan., farm to the American Royal Livestock and Horse Show, was the victim of a robber who broke into his car while he was attending the show.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Ryan & Company, Wall Street commission brokers, offer the following odds on week-end football games:

FRIDAY.

Duke 8.5 over Auburn.

Yale 7.5 over Army.

Yale 7.5 over Texas.

Yale 7.5 over Centenary.

Villanova 5.5 over Detroit.

Colgate 8.5 over Holy Cross.

Louisiana 6.5 over Vanderbilt.

North Carolina 6.5 over Georgia Tech.

Michigan 8.5 over Columbia.

Notre Dame 9.5 over Navy.

Chicago 7 over Wisconsin.

Kansas State 3.5 over Kansas.

U. T. 21 over Georgetown.

Princeton 4.1 over Cornell.

Dartmouth 3.1 over Harvard.

Ohio State 8.1 over Nebraska.

Nebraska 3.1 over Oklahoma.

Pittsburgh 5.1 over Penn State.

Pittsburgh 5 over Carnegie Tech.

Marquette 5.1 over Mississippi.

Two to three and take your pick. Georgia, Alabama, Manhattan, North Carolina, St. Louis, Illinois, Iowa, St. Louis, Washington, Oregon State vs. Washington.

YEWYAN H. BRASWELL, candidate for DeKalb county superior court, will open his campaign with an address at 7:30 o'clock tonight on the lawn of the T. K. Baldwin courthouse.

POLL managers for the election of three East Point councilmen in next Tuesday's elections were announced yesterday. Polls will be open election day from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m.

J. HENSON TATUM, city clerk, yesterday was reported doing nicely following an appendectomy performed during the day at Georgia Baptist hospital.

GEORGE S. LOWMAN, eighth ward school commissioner, will attempt to force adoption of a favorable report on his proposal to conduct an expert survey of the maintenance department of the school system. He submits an adverse report of a special board committee, he announced yesterday. The next meeting of the board is slated for November 12.

ATLANTA Federation of Trade passed a resolution at their semi-monthly meeting last night at the Labor Temple, the Fulton County school, an acceptance of its challenge to the high school football team in the country, and posted a guarantee of $1,000. Rhea Central has six victories, a tie and a defeat so far this season, running up a score of 139 to 15.

YANKEE SCOUTS.

WINTER PARK, Fla., Oct. 23.—(P)—Johnny Lee and Johnny Allen, looking around for New York Yankee material, have talked things over with Ed Levy, Rollins baseball star. Lee cautioned Levy against football last season and again this year. Levy is playing left end for the Rollins Tars anyway.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(UP)—Sutton's, Consul Bldg., Alabama and Whitehall, under Jacobs.

Mr. Sutton, formerly of 11 Edgewood Ave., has no connection with any other downtown shop.

1/2 Soles 40c and Up

We invite our old customers and solicit news ones to call on us at our new location.

Phone WA. 8922

OTTHELLO

As personified in the above type face is strongly qualified to make your printing superior to its competition.

Higgins Charles
Richard McArthur
Printers and Typographers

JACKSON 2630

PROPOSALS FOR CONCRETE BRIDGE FOUNDATIONS, U. S. Engineers Office, Box 600, Ocala, Florida. Sealed proposals will be received at the U. S. Engineers Office, Ocala, Florida, and then opened, for constructing concrete bridge foundations at the intersection of U. S. Highway No. 441 and the right-of-way of the Atlantic Coast Canal, near Santos, about five miles south-east of Ocala, Florida. The canal is approximately 1,600 cubic yards of earth excavation, and the construction of piers, abutments, and retaining walls, approximately 5,400 cubic yards of concrete and 188,000 pounds of reinforcing steel. Information on application $2.00 charge for each set of specification drawings.

THE CONSTITUTION, ATLANTA, GA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1935.

5% Mortgage Loans 5%

Approved from plans and specifications.

LIPSCOMB-WEYMAN-CHAPMAN CO.

214 WESTERN UNION BLDG.

WALNUT 2162

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.

5% PRIVATE LOANS

On Diamonds, Watches and Jewelry

W. M. LEWIS & CO.

4TH FLOOR PETE'S BLDG.

Murdaugh Bros.

In Memoriam.

In memory of our mother, Mrs. Dora Matthews, who died this life one year ago today. In our home, we loved you mother, but God loved you best.

EDWARD M. BURNETT AND FAMILY

CROSS SECTIONS

W. Carlton Mobley, executive secretary to Governor Talmadge, is ill at Forsyth and is not expected to return to Atlanta for several days. Mobley was stricken while on a visit to Forsyth, his home town.

Governor Talmadge yesterday granted the request of the state of Michigan for the execution of a man named Henry Smith, who has been held in jail at Eastman since October 1. Smith is wanted in Detroit to answer charges of uttering worthless checks.

ZEPHYRUS Association will hold its annual meeting in the offices of Dr. S. C. Outlaw, on Whitehall street, at 7:30 o'clock tonight, it was announced yesterday. "Civilization," Conservation of Vision, will be the subject of discussion.

Commissioner Edward J. Parker, national secretary for the Salvation Army, will speak during the weekly fellowship hour at the Salvation Army temple, 54 Ellis street, tomorrow night, it was announced yesterday. "Civilization," Conservation of Vision, will be the subject of discussion.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(P)—Despite the risk of losing her legacy, Mrs. Virginia Clayton Willys De Landra, daughter of the late John N. Willys, battled her stepmother in the courts today for control of her father's four to five million-dollar estate.</